Premier Will Open Campaign in City For Liberals To-night

splendid Rally Assured to Government Candidates; Mrs. Ralph Smith, Enthusiastically Received By Women To-day, Will Speak To-night.

The Oliver Government will commence its campaign in this city to-night, when the Hon. John Oliver will address Victoria electors at what undoubtedly will be a crowded and enthusiastic meeting in the Pantages Theatre. In addition to Mr. Oliver, who will make his first speech in the Capital during the present campaign, Mrs. Ralph Smith, Vancouver, will speak. Final arrangements for the big opening meeting were completed this afternoon in anticipation of a huge turnout of voters.

Besides the Premier and Mrs. Smith, it was announced to-day, Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance; H. C. Hall and J. B. Clearihue, all Government candidates for Victoria, will be present. Colonel Winsby will preside. An added attraction arranged to-day will be a solo by Mrs. Cody, the well-known contralto. The Pantages orchestra will play selections from half past seven until eight o'clock when the meeting will commence promptly.

Holds First Women's Meeting.
Mrs. Smith was enthusiastically received by Victoria women voters when she addressed them for the first time during the present campaign at the Princess Theatre this afternoon. A number of prominent Victoria women, as well as some of the Government candidates for Victoria, occupied seats on the platform.

The first Government ward meeting will be held on Wednesday night in the Oaklands School for the benefit of voters residing in Oaklands district. Hon. John Hart, H. C. Hall and J. B. Clearihue will be the speakers of the evening.

Make Way For Police.
It had been planned to hold a Victoria West meeting in the Pantages Theatre on Thursday night, but when it was found that this would conflict with the police ball the meeting was postponed until Saturday, November 20. The members of the Liberal Executive consider that every support should be given the police ball in order to make it a success. On this account it was agreed to make way for the police. The postponed meeting will be held in the Pantages Theatre on Saturday night.

Victoria Conservatives Will Hold a Meeting in North Ward to-morrow night at eight o'clock.
As set forth elsewhere in this issue the Soldier-Labor-Farmer Party has arranged a large number of meetings which will be held in Victoria and surrounding municipalities during the next two weeks.

J. E. Armshaw, of Sayward, announced to-day that he had been invited to run in the present election for Comox but that he had decided to support W. W. B. McInnes. Mr. Armshaw stated that he intends to contest the Comox-Alberni seat with H. S. Clements in the next Federal election.

CRIMEAN PENINSULA IN HANDS OF REDS

Bolshevik Troops Reported to Have Occupied Sebastopol Last Night

Constantinople Dispatch Yesterday Said Wrangel's Army Was Wiped Out

Paris, Nov. 15.—Sebastopol has fallen, the Russian Bolsheviks having occupied the city last night, according to unofficial information received by the French Foreign Office.

The Bolsheviks are reported to be masters of the whole Crimean Peninsula.

General Wrangel, members of his staff and a French High Commissioner at Sebastopol, were taken on board the French warship Waldeck Rousseau and are expected to arrive in Constantinople late to-night or to-morrow.

Taken Last Night.
London, Nov. 15.—Reuters' Paris correspondent says it is reported that the Bolsheviks captured Sebastopol Sunday night.

A dispatch from London yesterday said General Wrangel had telegraphed to General Townshend, who commanded the British forces at Kut-el-Amara, asking him to take charge of Wrangel's forces in the Crimea. General Townshend was said to be considering the matter.

Evacuated.
Constantinople, Nov. 15.—(Associated Press.)—Sebastopol fell to the Russian Soviet forces at five o'clock Sunday evening after the evacuation plans had been fully carried out, according to word received here to-day. General Wrangel, it is stated, was the last to leave, going aboard the cruiser Korniloff, cheered by his troops.

Twenty Divisions.
Constantinople, Nov. 15.—The Reds broke through the defence of General Wrangel on the Isthmus of Perekop, according to the best reports obtainable here, by concentrating twenty divisions against three divisions of the White army. Wrangel's men, although greatly outnumbered, withstood twenty-two assaults before Perekop but finally were beaten.

The commanders of most of Wrangel's forces were killed and the losses in men also were very large.

Foreign Leader.
The success of the Bolsheviks is attributed largely to the excellence of their high command, which is said to be directed by a foreigner.

The evacuation of the Crimea, which began Thursday, is continuing under great difficulties. It is a fearful sight to see the refugees crowded for in Constantinople as this already is overcrowded.

Wiped Out.
Constantinople Nov. 15.—The army General Wrangel, the anti-Bolshevik leader in South Russia, has been wiped out, it is reported, and his generals have committed suicide.

A mob in Sebastopol has pillaged the American Red Cross stocks. The United States torpedo boat destroyers at Sebastopol are evacuating the city and their families. The United States destroyer Humphreys has gone to Yalta to take off the Red Cross supplies.

Desperate Fighting.
Constantinople Nov. 15.—The fighting at Perekop was the most desperate character. The Bolsheviks, according to latest advices, admit they had 30,000 men killed. They claimed to have taken 40,000 prisoners. They owe their success largely to the use of poison gas.

It is said that at the request of the French representative attached to the Russian headquarters, the Bolsheviks have granted eight days for evacuation of the Crimea.

The Bolsheviks have taken both Yalta and Evpatoria and their cavalry is approaching Sebastopol, according to the latest advices received here.

Eupatoria is about midway down the Crimean peninsula. Yalta is situated only a short distance from the southern tip of the peninsula.

Refugees.
Constantinople, Nov. 14.—Thirteen thousand refugees have arrived here from Sebastopol but because of the lack of accommodations in the city they are still aboard ships moored in the Bosphorus. Several thousand more are due here and it is understood 30,000 have been permitted to take passage from the Crimean city. It was impossible to provide ships for the entire population of 60,000 people.

Two thousand wounded men also have arrived and have been distributed among the French and Russian hospitals.

General Baron Wrangel is declared to be without hope, but he is remaining calm and directing the work of removing civilians from Sebastopol. Fragments of General Wrangel's army have been embarked on Russian and French warships, and General Wrangel will probably leave on the French battleship Waldeck Rousseau.

COMMISSION ASKS GERMANY TO GIVE FACTS ABOUT CATTLE

Paris, Nov. 15.—Germany having failed up to the present to abide by the terms of Annex 4 of the Treaty of Versailles, which calls for the delivery to the Allies of a certain number of cattle, the Reparations Commission has invited the German Government to send qualified experts to Paris so that the whole question may be settled by November 20.

ANTI-CHRISTIANS ATTACK SALVATION ARMY IN TOKIO

Tokio, Nov. 15.—Anti-Christian mobs twice broke up Salvation Army jubilee celebrations here yesterday. Gangs of students dispersed an open air gathering, while a mob invaded an indoor meeting, tore down the decorations and silenced the speakers.

Officials of the Salvation Army declare they believe the disturbances were fomented by Buddhists.

Besides Mr. Doherty, Canada has two delegates at the first meeting of the Assembly of the League of Nations, now in progress in Geneva—Rt. Hon. Sir George Foster and Hon. R. W. Rowell.

STRIKE ENDED.

Brussels, Nov. 15.—Miners in the Charleroi district who have been on strike for more than a week will return to work to-day.

DESIRES AGREEMENT WITH THE STATES

Okuma, ex-Premier of Japan, Speaks of Japanese and American Relations

Tokio, Nov. 15.—(Associated Press.)—The Marquis Okuma, former Japanese Premier, addressing a meeting to-day, strongly attacked the plan to exclude Japanese from the United States by treaty. He pointed out that hitherto immigration was restricted under a voluntary agreement because restriction was prejudicial to Japan's prestige. The effort to make restriction statutory, he said, was an act of infidelity to Japanese-American friendship.

The former Premier believed that Washington would be able to stop California measures by enlisting public opinion of the whole country. If Japan's appeals to America's sense of international morality should fail, the speaker continued, only force would remain. Japan sincerely desired a solution of the problem, he concluded, fearing that otherwise the question would lead up to an outbreak of self-sacrificing patriotism, for which the Japanese people are noted.

VENIZELLOS CLAIMS VICTORY AT POLLS

On Early Returns Greek Premier Says His Party Won Election

Athens, Nov. 15.—Victory in the Greek general election held yesterday was claimed early this morning by Premier Venizelos. Actual returns, however, are as yet meagre. Throughout the campaign, which was conducted with unparalleled bitterness, the Premier was the storm centre and his assertion that his followers have been successful, if confirmed by the actual count of the votes, means for him a personal, as well as a political triumph.

The Issue.
The issue of the campaign was the return of former King Constantine to his throne, from which he was deposed during the war.

Following the death of King Alexander two weeks ago, the throne was offered to his younger brother, Prince Paul, who in answer virtually demanded that the Greek people pass on the question whether King Constantine should come back from exile. Only in the event the people decided against Constantine and would not accept Prince George, eldest son of Constantine, he said, would he consider accepting the Greek Government's offer. Premier Venizelos led the forces opposing the return of Constantine, and if he has succeeded in the election it is conceded he will have a deciding voice in the selection of the next sovereign.

MONTREAL EXCHANGE SEES A RECORD

Stock of Atlantic Sugar Company Down to 167 1/2; Was 164 Last July

Montreal Nov. 15.—After closing at 20 on Saturday Atlantic Sugar opened this morning at 19 and immediately dropped to 16 1/2 on the Montreal Stock Exchange.

Atlantic Sugar was 164 in July and its collapse constitutes a record for the Montreal Exchange.

A Shock.
Toronto Nov. 15.—Commenting on the slashing of prices on the stock markets in the past few weeks notably the downward career of Atlantic Sugar last week and the evident bursting of the war boom, the financial editor of The Toronto Globe writes:

"The average memory is short and there were some young enough to believe that the buoyancy of the past few years had come to be a permanent condition. It has therefore been a shock to see prices tumbling day after day with apparently little heed to the intrinsic value of the stocks."

The next few weeks should determine the degree of stabilization to which prices generally must soon return, and with stabilization will come confidence and a realization that the world is somewhat normal once more.

Sensational.

"Last week's record in the Canadian stock markets was so unusual as to be sensational, but it would have been much less noticed except for the downward career of Atlantic Sugar and the somewhat serious losses of several of the paper stocks."

Sugar, influenced the greater part of the active list and its position has been aggravated by the lack of information concerning the exact position of the company. The crash in Saturday afternoon carried it down to 194 or 144 points below its high figure of last July, seemed at last to have struck bottom, or at least to have left little room for further reaction. So much mystery, however, surrounded the condition in which the company found itself that traders were acting in the dark and were unaware of the wisdom or otherwise of this action. It is worth pointing out that according to the last annual report of Atlantic Sugar, the lands, buildings, plant, equipment, etc., were valued at $4,129,259, or equivalent to over $60 a share on an outstanding common and preferred stock."

ROBBED BY THUG.

Spokane, Nov. 15.—G. W. Clark, aged fifty-nine, of Fossil, Oregon, was robbed here Saturday evening of $250, his car and a suitcase containing work clothes. He was taken to the police. He stopped here en route home, he said, and was held up on the street.

George Bell Home to Stay in Fight For Principle

George Bell returned to Victoria to-day from Scotland where he has been campaigning with "Pussyfoot" Johnson for temperance.

"Is there a possibility of your withdrawing from the campaign as an independent candidate?" The Times asked him at his home, 1010 Linden Avenue.

"No, never," Mr. Bell replied. "When I received that telegram in Toronto asking me whether I would stand as an independent candidate in Victoria, the day after my name was turned down at the Liberal nominating convention, I knew just what was going on here."

"Before I answered that telegram I told two hours of hard thinking. I sweated blood. I knew that if I would not allow my name to be put forward as an independent it would be taken to mean that I thought more of my party than I did of my principles. It was a hard thing for me to go back on my party, but I sent back the reply 'Yes.' I am in the field as an independent Liberal."

"I was surprised the way the vote on October 29 in this Province went for Government control."

OPPOSITION HUMOR.

If the average voter prefers to look at the humorous side of life he may take the Opposition manifesto and indulge himself to his heart's content. Its anomalies are almost as numerous as roses in June. It promises everything but the Millennium. It even goes so far as to guarantee that if a Conservative Government should direct the policies of this Province after the election the credit of British Columbia would be restored to the position which it held in 1916. That is to say Mr. Bowser would receive the old label by which provincial securities were known to the money market of the continent when the late Administration left office four years ago. Once more would the money lenders shrug their shoulders and decline to take "deficiency bonds" except at a heavy rate of interest. This was the condition which had to be met by the Minister of Finance when he and the Premier went to Eastern Canada to examine the financial situation at close range. Could any individual aspiring to the leadership of the next Government conceive of a more humorous appeal for support than this? What a fine thing for the Province to go back to the "good old days" when it was the fashion to borrow money to discharge current liabilities!

THE "T. B." VETERAN.

Sooner or later it will be necessary for the Dominion Government to decide what it is going to do with those former members of the C. E. F. who contracted tuberculosis while in the service of their country and whose future now depends upon the nature of their employment and the surroundings in which they live. As far as British Columbia is concerned the problem is less acute while the men are undergoing treatment at Balfour and Tranquille. But the time is not far distant when many of those who are in-patients at the present time will have conquered the disease sufficiently to enable them to engage in some form of employment with the promise of complete rehabilitation providing each individual case is treated along scientific lines. To discharge the patient as cured and permit him to enter the labor market on all fours with the man who is robust and healthy would be sealing the veteran's doom. Only by the establishment of a suitable colony in an atmosphere which is known to be beneficial to sufferers from pulmonary troubles may the "T. B." subject hope to reach that measure of independence to which his citizenship and service to his country entitle him. Of the number of proposals submitted to the Dominion Government from time to time that which recommends the utilization of the Kamloops Indian Reserve for this very purpose appears to be the most practical. The scheme comprehends the establishment of a farm colony, a central village, sub-standard shops and a general arrangement by which the men may resume their lives under sheltered, congenial conditions and attain to a position of self-dependence. The Prime Minister has signified his intention of advocating the plan if it proves to be feasible upon further investigation. This is satisfactory as far as it goes; but no time should be lost in making this and other investigations which may be essential to the welfare of these unfortunate men, who are in a class of war casualty peculiarly alone in its demand for the right sort of treatment.

OPENS NEW FIELD.

Victoria should benefit very considerably by the arrangement which gives her equal advantages with Vancouver in the matter of freight rates from the coast terminals of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway to all points on the Provincially-owned system. It will be understood, of course, that many difficulties have had to be overcome before an arrangement of this sort could be made; but it is a matter for congratulation all round that the Oliver Government, the Victoria Board of Trade and the Canadian Pacific Railway have been able to adjust the difference which effectually prevented the capital city of the Province from regarding the country tapped by the P. G. E. as anything in the nature of a customer as long as mainland coast shipping points held the advantage of a lower basis of freight costs. More benefit might be taken of the new concession were the Board of Trade to emulate the policy of Vancouver by conducting a tour of business men to that section of the Province in which it will now have added interest.

THE GREEK ELECTIONS.

It ought to be safe to assume that Premier Venizelos and the Liberal Party are sufficiently popular in Greece to guarantee a return to power after to-day's elections. Endorsement at the hands of the electorate very probably would mean a Royalist campaign and an attempt to create a popular sentiment in favor of a return of former King Constantine. But the people as a whole are solidly behind Venizelos. Since the abdication of Tino and the development of the pro-Ally sentiment Premier Venizelos has been the real ruler of Greece. And nobody has captivated popular sentiment more than he. He took a definite stand in his friendliness towards Great Britain and her allies in the war and fought a pro-German Court and a network of intrigue until Constantine and his Teuton consort left the country. Moreover, the future of the Hellenic kingdom to a very large extent depends upon the proceedings taking place to-day, while both Great Britain and France would look with disfavor upon any suggestion that King Constantine be restored to the throne.

A WONDERFUL MAN!

Among the things Mr. Bowser promises to do for British Columbia if he is chosen to lead the next Government are the following: He will reduce the cost of the public service without impairing its efficiency; he will pay reasonable salaries—with due regard to living costs—to those in the Government's employ; he will pass legislation to provide for superannuation to be paid out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund and will not permit the continuance of a levy on salary; he will assist the municipalities by means of a per capita grant out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund; he will complete the Pacific Great Eastern Railway to the Peace River country at a cost of about twenty-five millions of dollars; and he will hand over a share of the profits that will be derived from the sale of liquor. It is possible there are a few things the Leader of the Opposition has forgotten. But any surplus after satisfying the fixed charges on the little details of expenditure referred to above—not to mention the average disbursements on current account—no doubt would be applied to the erection of a few jails and court houses as suitable reminder of a hobby to which the present Opposition chieftain devoted a great deal of the people's money during the period in which he endeavored to govern this Province.

NOTE AND COMMENT

The Bowser manifesto says the Minimum Wage Board has proved a failure as employers are allowed to evade its provisions. Is this why workers in callings as yet not under the application of the law are desirous of getting its protection?

Germany declares she will ask for admittance to the League of Nations, nor will she ignore an invitation. Germany will have to be admitted eventually, and when she is asked to become a member she will not be able to accept quick enough.

When the Bowser Government left office on the toe of the electorate four years ago British Columbia's bonds were known as "deficiency bonds." But if the Opposition Leader is chosen to form an Administration on December 1 he promises to place the credit of the Province where it was in 1916!

Mr. William Brace, one of the most moderate of miners' leaders, has accepted a British Government post in the Mines Department. The radical elements will label him a traitor and forget that he can do much more for his former associates in the position to which he now goes than he could in a Trades Union convention.

In an address at Rock Creek the Leader of the Opposition said "if you are going to have the Moderation Act enforced by Mr. Farris as the Prohibition Act was enforced by him, then all I can say is 'God help British Columbia.'" Has Mr. Bowser forgotten what his own supporters said about that Act when it was under discussion in 1916?

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS

THE NEW NATIONAL POLICY

(Saskatoon Star.)

Here are questions Mr. Meighen might turn his attention to. Is there any reason why articles of food should not be brought in free of duty? Is there any reason why coal and cement should not be brought in free of duty? Is there any reason why the British preference should not be increased 25 per cent. annually for five years, in order quickly to bring about free trade within the Empire? These and similar questions immediately suggest themselves from a reading of the "platform" of the definite and exact platform, as stated before. Mr. Meighen would be equipped to much better advantage in trying to answer them than in putting forth "glittering generalities" which really suggest that he has slight regard for the intelligence of his audience.

ROAD ENGINEERING PROGRESS

(Industrial Publicity Service, London)

In view of the rapid development of road traffic in Great Britain an inspection has been carried out over more than one thousand miles of the principal roads, and a careful examination made of the experimental lengths which have been laid on various novel systems of construction. It is anticipated that a sum of at least five million pounds sterling will be spent within the near future on road making and road improvements. British roads have enjoyed the reputation of being the best all-round, in the world, and there is every sign that the new methods devised by British road engineers to enable road surfaces to withstand heavy motor traffic will maintain that reputation.

LO, THE POOR INDIAN.

(The St. Louis Globe-Democrat.)

At an interstate fair, held in Spokane, the regulations forbid the driving of automobiles inside the fair grounds. Consequently the squaws from the nearby reservations, who maintained an Indian village in the heart of the fair to show visitors the wild life of our aborigines, were compelled to walk outside the grounds to get aboard the touring cars their lords and masters had been taking them to convey them home at night.

WHERE IT STARTED

(Copyright, 1920, By The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

The earliest form of ballroom dancing was the quadrille, started in about 1825. This was followed by the lancers, invented in 1836. The polka, which came from Germany in 1850, did not become popular as a ballroom dance till later. The two-step is an American invention, as are most of the more modern dance steps.

WHY DO WE STRETCH WHEN TIRED?

(Copyright, 1920, By The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

Just as a yawn is the natural impulse of the body to bring more oxygen to the lungs by inhaling a larger amount of air than is obtained through ordinary breathing, the action of stretching one's arms expands the chest and naturally causes a greater intake of oxygen which the body realizes that it needs. We extend the arms, open the mouth and contract the arteries for the moment. The heart therefore works the harder to pump the blood through the body and especially through the lungs, thereby taking advantage of every particle of the additional oxygen.

The desire to stretch is usually connected with a feeling of drowsiness or fatigue, because a desire for rest is a sign that the body is tired and is seeking a stimulant of some kind, either sleep or an extra amount of oxygen, the fuel which keeps the human furnace burning as it should. The satisfied feeling which follows a good "stretch" is due to the fact that the blood has received a sufficient supply of the material which it needs, and also because of the change in the position of the muscles of the arms and chest which have become fatigued through remaining too long in one position.

Vote For Better Conditions.
"Why did the people of this Province vote that way, you ask me?" "It was because they are sincere. They want a better state of things here than they have been having. If here there is a moderation scheme and conditions better than in the past, how are they going to get it? They need someone in the Legislature who has temperance at heart to help from the measure."

That Convention "Bunch."
"But I wonder if the bunch that go to a nominating convention and holler and holler—wonder whether they are the chaps who are going to bring about this better day?"
"Mr. Bell said that he understood that the Conservative convention was just as bad if not worse than the Liberal convention as an organized gang went to the Conservative convention to howl down the name of one man who was not a 'wet.'"

Designated by Both Sides.
Since breakfast this morning Mr. Bell's home has been one of the most animated places in Victoria. He has been besieged by persons who want assurances that he will not drop out of the running, and also by persons who want him to drop out, as they put him second in the count to Premier Brewster in 1916 will mean that at least one straight party Liberal will be defeated here."

Quarter of Scotland "Dry."
"About one-quarter of Scotland will be made dry as a result of the vote that is now taking place there," said Mr. Bell telling of his trip. "Even our opponents must admit that this is quite a substantial measure of success. It is really a wonderful beginning."

Cutting Down Barrooms.
"Between what actually goes dry and the total reduction will mean the closing of 25 per cent. of all the barrooms in Scotland."

Had Rough Times.
Mr. Bell campaigned for the last fifteen days with Pussfoot Johnson. "In dozens of cities where we went there was no hail to hold all the people that came to hear us," said Mr. Bell. "Mr. Johnson had to have police protection. Some places he had to have a line of police from the door of the hall to his car so he could get out and get away."

Wants Scotsmen Here.
"I figure out that I can help Canada and B. C. when I speak in a foreign country. During this trip every time I spoke I gave five minutes to telling about Canada as the land of opportunity and telling of the warm welcome there awaited Scottish people here."

SPECIAL LEAGUE SERVICES HELD
League Assembly Starts Work in Geneva Supported by Prayers

Geneva, Nov. 15.—The League of Nations Assembly will begin work here supported by the prayers of all Geneva. Special services were held in all the churches yesterday, and were largely attended by the delegates. The British delegation numbered 100. Canada is represented by Sir George E. Foster, Hon. N. W. Howland and Hon. C. J. Doherty.

The representatives of Great Britain and her Dominions went to Holy Trinity Church, where Rt. Hon. George N. Barnes read the first part of the service and Lord Robert Cecil the second part. The Bishop of Worcester, who came to Geneva expressly for the purpose, dwelt on Christ as the originator of the idea of good international fellowship.

Conferences.
The principal delegations held conferences during the day. The British, with Dominion representatives, continued talks begun in London on the policy to be followed on the floor of the Assembly, and it is hoped in League circles that these preliminary conferences will diminish the chances of friction which it is desired to avoid at this first meeting.

The leading delegations will go into the sessions with a well defined policy and surprises can come only from the smaller states, whose delegations are expected to exercise care not to assume the right of approving of a conflict.

A Commission.
The Council of the League yesterday afternoon named a Financial Commission composed of ten delegates including Basil B. Blackett of Great Britain. The Commission was named chiefly to carry out the recommendations of the financial conference at Brussels. It is not yet determined whether it

FRUIT GROWERS WILL MEET NEXT THURSDAY

Will Discuss Co-operative
Marketing of Small Fruits

H. A. McNaughton, secretary of the Gordon Head Fruit Growers' Association, has left for the mainland and will attend a meeting of the fruit growers from Gordon Head, Mission, Hazelton, Agassiz and Chilliwack districts, which will be held at Chilliwack on Thursday.

The meeting has been called for the purpose of discussing a comprehensive co-operative movement for the marketing of small fruits.

The experience of the last few years has demonstrated the desirability, if not the absolute necessity, of organization in order to prevent canners and wholesalers from beating down prices, pitting one fruit area against the other, misleading them in crop conditions, prices quoted, etc.

It is proposed by the promoters of the meeting, who include the representative small fruit men of the districts named, to create one central selling agency for the fruit men of Vancouver Island and the Lower Mainland.

Cold storage facilities will also be handled more economically and advantageously to better advantage under the suggested scheme. Much fruit that is now either wasted or dumped on an already surfeited market will be saved to the ultimate benefit of both producer and consumer.

WANTS COMRADES TO KNOW ABOUT IT

Veteran of Somme and Vimy
Ridge Freed of Rheumatism,
Says Tanlac Has No
Equal

"For the benefit of my comrades who may be suffering as I was on returning from overseas, I want to tell what a wonderful thing Tanlac has been for me," said Ernest Champagne, of 545 Langside St., Winnipeg, recently.

Mr. Champagne was in France with the Seventieth Battalion and was in two of the fiercest battles of the war, Vimy Ridge and the Somme. He is now a valued employee of the Canadian Railway Co.

"After returning from the trenches," he continued, "I began to suffer terribly from rheumatism. My legs were so badly crippled up I could hardly walk, and then my arms and shoulders became affected."

"I had constant and almost unbearable pains in my back. My appetite left me, my stomach became so disordered that whatever I ate upset me, and I had splitting headaches. I lost about twenty pounds in weight and got so run-down I gave up all hope of ever being well."

"But since taking Tanlac I am as good a man physically as I ever was in my life. Actually, every trace of my rheumatism is gone and all my other aches and pains have left me. My appetite is splendid, I sleep fine every night and have gained ten pounds in weight. After my experience I know that Tanlac is worthy of all the good things that are being said about it."

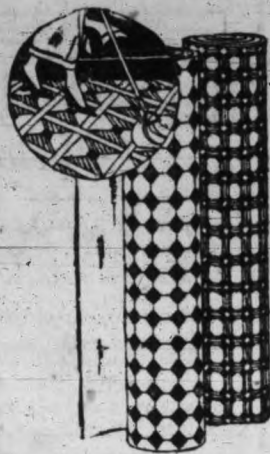

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas, and Lang's Drug Store, Esquimalt.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?
 Facts About Your Name: Its History; Its Meaning; Whence It Was Derived; Its Significance; Your Lucky Day and Lucky Number.
 By Mildred Marshall.
 (Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)
CHRISTINE

Christine, meaning Christian, comes from the Greek verb chrio, meaning to touch or anoint. In early times it was translated to signify the Old Hebrew prophetic Messiah (The Anointed) and became a title for the Savior, the very touchstones of faith.

The first person known to have been baptized under the title in St. Christina, a Roman virgin of patrician birth, martyred in 255. Tradition declares that she was thrown into Lake Bolsena with a millstone around her neck, but it floated to the surface supported by a swarm of fish. Naturally, she became a patroness of fishermen and of the Venetian States, where Christina is popularly known as Santa Cristina.

Her fame traveled through Greece and Hungary and was brought from the latter country to England and Scotland by the Atheling family in the person of Christina, Abbess of Romsey. The name was promptly abbreviated to Christine, and later to Christina. Christina is a popular name in Germany, preserved the original Christina, but has several diminutives, among them Sine and Tine.

Through John Bunyan's "Christiana" as the feminine of the allegorical hero of "Pilgrim's Progress," this form became popular in England. Christina is Kirsten in Scandinavian countries, and in Scandinavia, Christina, Xina, Christians and Christina are English favorites. France favors Christine, only and Italy calls her Christina. In Germany she is Christina and Kristel, Portugal has an old form: Christina.

Christina's talismanic jewel is jade, whose potency for good fortune and health is beyond question. If a sacred stone to the Chinese who believe that all good things come to her who wears it and evil can have no power over her. Given to a newly married couple, it is said to assure the birth of an heir within a year. Christina's lucky day is Monday and six is her lucky number.

TO-DAY'S JEWELS

To-day's talismanic gem is a stone of religious significance. It is the lapis lazuli, which is particularly noted for its ability to dispel particularly melancholia and insomnia. For those who are inclined to morbidity, the lapis lazuli is specially recommended.

The promise of the topaz will be fulfilled to those who wear it. This promise embraces all good fortune, as well as protection from harm, and the avoidance of harm which arises from evil acquaintances. It was believed by the ancients that the topaz was a stone which led singularly pleasant and untroubled lives. Yellow is a fortunate color to-day. To wear it is believed to bring happiness in love.

The little white flower known as the snowdrop, is a lucky blossom to-day.

MRS. WATT SPEAKS FOR H. C. HELGESEN

Pleads to Women to Be Courageous in Exercise of Franchise

A splendid appeal for the electors of Esquimalt to show their confidence in the Oliver administration by returning Mrs. Alfred Watt, M.B.E., on Friday evening. Mrs. Watt spoke of woman's place in the field of modern politics.

Mrs. Watt referred to her long residence in the Esquimalt Electoral District, to the kindly welcome that had been given her by the residents of that district on her return and to their expressed wish that she should take up her residence again among them. She had been very glad to do so, although in another part of the district, but both on that account and of business through property in the district united with the people of Esquimalt, and I am ready at any time, as I have informed the Reeve, to co-operate with any local group which would unite the women in a patriotic and progressive community effort," she said.

She was considered that the eve of this important election is not the favorable moment to launch a campaign for a better and more prosperous Esquimalt. But perhaps the heat of a party strife there cannot be secured sufficient co-operation. However, I have this to say that I hope when the fight is over that we shall all be the good friends and a good pull together loyally behind whatever member we elect in all matters pertaining to the good of the district.

The Liberal Candidate.

Mrs. Watt then paid a tribute to the candidate, Mr. Helgesen, whom she described as a true and valued friend, a good citizen, a loyal friend, a man foremost in every movement for good, and neighborly who home is open to all community and friendly gatherings. Every man, woman and child in his own neighborhood likes Henry Helgesen and has some, if not many, recollections of personal kindnesses.

Ready to Teach Returned Men.

Mrs. Watt said that she had never appealed in vain to Mr. Helgesen to give a returned man a chance on his farm. He had always taken the men she sent him, and not only given them help and a good home, but had shown them how to make good. Only two months before a young Englishman whom she sent, told her owing to Mr. Helgesen's teaching and encouragement he now felt able to go into farming on his own account. "It is not every man, unfortunately, of whom we can say the same. Many employers say that their implements and their horses and cows would be ruined and will not be used and that the returned men trying to make good."

Women in Politics.

Mrs. Watt then went on to speak of the introduction of women into politics. She had yet to learn whether they would be for or against. She said that she was not going to talk about the serious responsibility of the vote for women. Most women had felt the responsibility already, but she believed that politics in the long run would prove to be rather a pleasant diversion from housework. It all depended on how women played the game. If they remained good humored, respecting their neighbor's opinion, allowing every woman her own viewpoint without quarreling with it, if they informed themselves in the issues and studied the economic questions of the day, if they were courageous in facing their problems and steadfast in support of the right, there could be no doubt as to the work and their service to the nation.

"As I understand it from Mr. Helgesen," Mrs. Watt continued, "he intends to have women as well as men on his committee both before and after the election, he intends to endeavor to represent the women as fully as the men. I fully anticipate that the presence of women on all these committees will secure the district against graft and corruption. I do not mean to say that men are more politically corrupt than we think women will be, but some men often seem to be closely connected with candidates, and the future dispenser of patronage, whereas the class of women who will go into political life will do so because they think they see a chance to do some social service, and the very presence of these women on party committees will militate against wrong practices. (Applause.)

"I am glad you all agree with me. Because there lies a great hope for our future. What might we not do in this grand province of ours if we could sweep out the graft, the party heeler, the mean, low parasite who makes honest government a farce and brings to naught the best efforts of those of our politicians who have ideals and who are struggling against such discouraging odds all the time.

The Liquor Question.

"If there was ever a time when the momentous question of liquor control was so settled, and the future of our children made or marred when we women should be thankful for the privilege of the vote, it is now. Send sober responsible fathers to the legislature who want this province free from drunkenness, and trust them to find way to do it. I know, and it is nothing to our discredit that many a woman here will ask for Divine guidance to her husband and his head as well on his fine farm, still he knows what a full day's work means. He would, I fancy, be glad of an eight-hour day for himself, but on a dairy farm cows are no trade unionists and neither daylight saving or overtime makes any difference to them. This is the day of the worker—far too long delayed—who is determined to reap the reward of his labor and to give his children the opportunity any child brought up in this great Dominion should have, and with his natural and distinguished traits he will find Mr. Helgesen in deep sympathy.

He is a native son of old pioneer stock, long resident in this Dominion, but he is not on that account unfriendly to the new-comer. I hope that like myself he will not subscribe to that selfish doctrine "Canada for the Canadians." I am of five generations of Canadians but no one realizes more than I what we owe to those who are daily coming to us from the Old Land, bringing the fine sense of justice and duty and the broad tolerance which distinguishes the Briton, the world over, the enthusiasm and poetry of the Welshman, the perseverance and honesty of the Scot, the unquenchable courage of the true Irish, the industry and handicraft skill of the Belgian, the deathless gallantry and the wit and grace of the French, and we of the sea girl coast know what we owe to the sturdy sailors and pioneers the Norwegian and the Dane.

"Indeed, it is Canada for all good men and women, and let us make them all Canadians as soon as we can."

"We want in this Canada of ours every man and woman to have a fair chance. We do not want the dominions, the aristocracy of wealth, any more than we want the old feudal system back. In fact if I had to choose between this arrogance, and insolence and selfishness, and the fine ideals of life as we too often have it in Canada and the old class privilege of the Old World I should choose the latter because there is so much good in the old nobility, a high sense of duty and service and I can see no good at all in the profiteer."

Equality of Opportunity.

"We want equality of opportunity, a chance to make good and no class privilege, whether it be high or low. And that is why I am a Liberal, because Liberalism means that to me freedom of opinion, democracy, courage, high ideals, honest government, and because I am temperamentally unable to agree with the divine right of a certain privileged class to rule over their fellow citizens. We women are now traveling along the road of citizenship side by side with men, and just as it takes a man and a woman working together to make a home, just so it takes men and women co-operating to make a nation. But we must work together not in antagonism."

No Class Privileges.

"I have said that we want no classes with their artificial barriers interposing inhuman barriers, a petty isolation of man from man, but there is one class to whom no rule should apply, the men who fought and suffered for us overseas. The Oliver Government has done more than any other Provincial Government for the returned men, it has given us an honest and business-like administration. But the most any Government can do is the least they should do. And our individual responsibility is none the less. The men who saved for us our farms, our shops, our jobs, our homes, are our own personal care for the rest of our lives. All our sympathy, our encouragement, our active help should be theirs without question. No man has a right to be rich above his needs when there are soldiers poor below theirs."

"Say It With Flowers."

"In closing I am asking you if you can find it in your hearts and conscience—for I will ask no man to vote against his conscience—to vote for Mr. Helgesen to do so in the full confidence that you will be sending to the Legislature a good man, a loyal citizen, and a fellow laborer who will spare no pains or trouble to advance the interests of his constituents and of the Empire," concluded Mrs. Watt.

FORESTERS' BALL

Duncan, Nov. 15.—It was unfortunate that there were not more people at the excellent ball given by the "Foresters" in the Agricultural Hall, Duncan, on Thursday night. The small attendance was accounted for partly by so many of the Duncan residents going to Victoria to see the performance of "Chu Chin Chow," and others were kept away by the measles epidemic. It is feared that there will be a loss of about $50. Those who did go were well repaid by a most enjoyable evening. The decorations were particularly attractive having been done by the Foresters themselves. The supper, which was undertaken by the ladies Backache? Rheumatism? Run-down?

Those of us who are past middle age are prone to eat too much meat and in consequence deposit lime-salts in the arteries, veins and joints. We often suffer from twinges of rheumatism or lumbago, sometimes from swollen hands or feet. There is no longer the slightest need of this, however, as the new prescription, "Anuric," usually gives immediate results as it is many times more potent than lithia, in ridding the impoverished blood of its poison by way of the kidneys. It can be obtained at almost any drug store. Ask for Dr. Pierce's "Anuric" (anti-uric acid) for kidneys or backache, or send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Laboratory, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package.

PREMIER TO START

TOUR TO-NIGHT

He Spoke at Up-Island Centres During the Week-End

Premier Oliver is back at his office to-day after his week-end speaking tour up the island.

A brass band greeted him at Cumberland Saturday night and escorted him to the Miners' Hall, where he spoke from 7.15 to 8.15 o'clock to 200 persons, who cheered him and made no interruptions.

After this he was driven to Courtenay, where he spoke for two and one-half hours to between 400 and 500 persons. During this meeting there were persistent interruptions, attributed to a discharged road boss, until the audience took steps to intervene. Both meetings were in the interests of Hugh Stewart, Liberal candidate for Comox.

The Premier's replies to questions about the Soldiers' Settlement at Merville brought cheers from the audience. The Premier charged Mr. Bowser with going into the settlements not to help the soldiers along but to foment trouble and get them stirred up so that Mr. Bowser could corral a few votes.

After to-night's Liberal meeting at the Pantages Theatre, the Premier will go to Vancouver on a week's tour of the Lower Mainland. He will speak at Ladner Tuesday night, at Tyne Head Wednesday afternoon, White Rock Wednesday night, Langley on Thursday, Westminster on Friday and Chilliwack on Saturday.

LETTERS

VICTORIA AND ARMISTICE DAY.

To the Editor:—There are many. I am glad to know, who respond to the withering scorn, worthily expressed by a contributor in a contemporary Sunday paper, on the keeping of Armistice Day in Victoria. It is difficult to understand the apathy and utter indifference of this capital city of British Columbia—the seat of Government—in the matter. The loss to the rising generation in lessons of patriotism, high ideals, reverence and gratitude is lamentable. Surely this city should have been to the fore in its example to others, whereas we may well be hot with indignation and shame.

I wonder if there is enough public spirit here to welcome a suggestion I should like to make. It is noticeable that while small outside places Sooke and Duncan for instance, have erected a public memorial in memory of those who have fallen in the war, nothing is done in Victoria. Could we not make an effort? Could we not combine to raise a replica of the Cenotaph unveiled on Armistice Day at Whitehall, London, in our own park or elsewhere, by the donation of five cents from every man, woman and child who desires to have a share in this monument?

Ask no help from a Government or City Council, who have shown such indifference but, by a voluntary subscription, gather a sufficient sum. I believe there are numbers of mothers, wives, sisters, and children who would love to feel they had a personal share in building thus to the memory of those they have lost. If this suggestion commends itself to the public judgment, we could organize the matter and, by another Armistice Day, gather around our own monument for that impressive and wonderful two minutes silence. MARY KITTO.

CONSTABLE'S FUNERAL WIDELY ATTENDED

Police, Fire Department, Masons, Orangemen and Citizens Attend

The funeral of the late Constable Robert Forster, which was held yesterday from the Thomson Funeral Chapel, formed one of the largest corteges that has been seen in this city for some time. In all over 350 people attended to pay their last respects to the officer, who was one of the most popular members of the motor cycle club and had served for some time as a constable.

The funeral arrangements were in the hands of the Masonic Craft, 150 members being present, while the Orange-Lodge sent a contingent of another fifty. Three officers and some men from the 16th Battalion attended out of deference to their late comrade who had served over five years with that unit overseas, mostly in France. Rev. Dr. Clay officiated.

Camoun Lodge, No. 60, A. F. and A. M., of which the late constable was a highly-respected member, attended in a body, as did the police forces of Victoria, Saanich, Oak Bay and Esquimalt, while representatives of the Victoria Fire Department, of Premier Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 1610, and of various returned soldiers organizations, also attended. At the service Miss Letta Cody sang with much feeling the solo, "The Veil."

The procession to the cemetery was headed by the Veterans of France Pipe band, and at the grave the pipe band played the "Lament" at Ross Bay Cemetery during the ceremony there.

NEARLY EQUALS RECORD

Bickerstaff Wilson Comes Within Two Strokes of Low Score in Tournament Yesterday

Oak Bay golfers yesterday played the first two rounds of their tournament, ending up with Bickerstaff Wilson, A. J. Magan, J. A. Rithet and E. D. Todd being the winners. The last two rounds have yet to be played.

The feature of the play was Mr. Wilson's score. He made thirty-two out of thirty-eight holes, which is within two of his record of sixty-eight.

The result of the first round was: B. Wilson beat H. Barnard by default; H. Patterson beat J. E. Wilson, 1 up in 19; Darcy Martin beat A. T. Goward, 1 up in 19; A. V. Macdon beat H. G. Garrett, 6 and 4; J. A. Rithet beat W. C. Todd, 8 and 6; H. Westmoreland beat C. Martin, 6 and 5; J. R. Matson beat J. W. Corning, 2 and 1; E. D. Todd beat J. W. Lambert, 5 and 4.

Second round: Wilson beat Patterson, 8 and 7; Macdon beat Martin, 7 and 6; Rithet beat Westmoreland, 2 up; Todd beat Matson, 5 and 4. So that members of the Colwood Club may become familiar with the Oak Bay links in preparation for next Sunday's tournament, the Oak Bay course has been thrown open to them every afternoon this week except Saturday. It was announced to-day.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR 88TH FUSILIERS

Impressive Scenes at St. Mary's Church; Colors Presented

Impressive tribute to the members of the 88th Victoria Fusiliers who gave their lives during the great war was paid at the memorial service held last evening in St. Mary's Church, Oak Bay. The church was filled to capacity with a congregation which included relatives and friends of the fallen heroes, representatives of the I.O.D.E. and of the various returned soldier organizations. The Lieutenant-Governor was present and among the military representatives Aprils Brig-Gen. Ross, C.M.G., G.O.C., Col. Bennett, and Col. John Hall, former O.C. of the regiment.

During the service the colors of the regiment were formally presented to the church and the memorial tablet to the Fusiliers, which is a replica of the one erected in the Parliament Building, was unveiled. Col. the Rev. G. H. Andrews, rector of the church and chaplain of the Fusiliers, conducted the impressive service and officiated at the touching little ceremony.

Miss Nellie Lugin sang with sweetness and devotion the hymn, "O Rest in the Lord," and the hymns sung by the congregation were, "O God Our Help in Ages Past," "For all the Saints Who From their Labors Rest," and a special hymn, appropriate to the occasion, which commenced with the words, "O valiant souls, to your glory came Through dust of conflict and the roar of battle flame."

In an eloquent address, Col. Andrews briefly reviewed the glorious history of the 88th Victoria Fusiliers, through which regiment 4,500 men had passed overseas. The colors had been presented to the regiment in August, 1914 by the Victoria members of the Imperial Order, Daughters of Empire, and their consecration took place at the Willows Camp in April, 1915, on the eve of the departure of the 88th Battalion, C.E.F., for overseas.

Now that the 88th Victoria Fusiliers no longer existed, continued the rector, it had been decided that no more fitting place for the resting-place of the colors could be found than in St. Mary's Church, where so many of the men had worshipped before leaving for the front. He referred with pride to the esprit de corps of the regiment, and declared that although the colors were not inscribed with any names, the action in which the men had fought would go down to history with such glorious names as Inkerman and other victories of the Empire. The comrades who had passed on were as much comrades as in the days when they had been in living force, and their memory would never fade. As the "Padre" concluded his note of comfort to those who had sustained bereavement through the war.

A Hero's Diary.
A propos of the presentation of the colors it is interesting to note that reference was made in his diary by a Victoria boy who was one of the original members of the regiment and who lost his life in the great conflict.

Under the date of August 5, 1914, while a member of the 88th Victoria Fusiliers, he wrote of the regiment, being presented with the colors outside the Temple Buildings, which at that time housed the I.O.D.E. Headquarters. The men then marched to Christ Church Cathedral where the colors were blessed by Bishop Roper, then chaplain of the regiment, and left in the care of the Cathedral. After this ceremony the men who had volunteered for service left to fill their kit-bags in preparation for leaving for the front, among the number being many of the young "originals," who later gave their lives in the great cause.

The colors are particularly handsome, having been made long before the war by the I.O.D.E. and made at the Kensington School of Art, London, England.

OUTLINES DUTY OF CITIZENS

Robert Crosby Addresses Retail Section of Board on Expansion Campaign

Addressing a special luncheon of the Retail Section of the Board of Trade, held at the Dominion Hotel to-day under the chairmanship of Robert A. Crosby, of the Canadian City Bureau, outlined the preliminary work of the campaign in the expansion and development movement that is now under way, under the guidance of the professional organizers engaged for that purpose.

Mr. Crosby stated that he had addressed the students of the High School to-day to the number of some 800, and had been impressed with the idea that if the city was not made attractive to the young, the citizens they would not stay, but find other spheres of activity. The city must develop opportunity for its growing children, he claimed, and pointed out that the growing generation was to be deprived of an asset that could not be neglected.

A modernism that has proved true beyond question, he continued, was the fact that cities were built by men, and where men wanted them, not artfully dependent on local resources and facilities as had been formerly supposed.

Try the Bitro-Phosphate Health System.

NEW YORK. If you are feeling run-down, weak, nervous, tired-in-the-morning, and generally ailing, these are the symptoms that should warn you to take care of your health.

Four persons in every ten are needing more phosphorus in their bodies. When you are thin and fretful people, or those who are anemic, pale, frail, of dependent or lacking in energy, you may look for the need of certain elements that make for a strong constitution. Some people, after relying upon pre-natal, post-natal, or other salts, quinine, drastic drugs, iron, cod liver oil, etc., wonder why they find no benefit. That is easily explained by the fact that such persons need the phosphoric element, which is a most potent essential to health, and contained in BITRO-PHOSPHATE, the famous health preparation. Now obtainable everywhere.

The right thing for you to do is make a trial of BITRO-PHOSPHATE beginning at once. It is not a patent medicine; the formula is prescribed by many physicians for the ailments and weaknesses mentioned above.

Buy a box of BITRO-PHOSPHATE. It is sold and recommended by all good druggists everywhere.

a community where few worked and many criticized the efforts of those that were working in its behalf. The spirit of service, clear vision, co-operation and loyalty to the community, he said, was every one in the community, he stated, and with this end in view, all would be asked to take a deep and service-giving interest in the city and its progress. Confidence in the success of the three-year campaign was expressed by Chairman R. B. Price, at the close of Mr. Crosby's address.

SIGNS OF A STORM.

Ma, with a stern look on her face and a cane in her hand, was waiting for Willie.
Ten o'clock struck, then ten-thirty, even eleven, but no Willie came. Ma dozed in jerks and starts.
At last Willie came up the garden path, took off his boots, and softly opened the front door.
Taking an umbrella from the hall-stand, he fled up the stairs. But Ma heard, and came up after him.
As she arrived, Willie scrambled quickly between the sheets and opened the umbrella.
"Willie!" said Ma, "what are you doing? Why have you brought that umbrella up to bed with you?"
"Ma," said he, "I thought there was going to be a storm."
"What you don't see that you have laid up?" said Ma, "you have been time out of doors for three months." "Bill—What was the matter with you?" Jim—Nominally—but the straightener wouldn't believe it."

For the Piano— and all fine Furniture

THE care of a costly instrument involves the use of a polish so dependable as to be absolutely "above reproach". The fact that O-Cedar Polish is used for piano polishing in preference to all other preparations, by thousands of women, is as strong a recommendation as you could have for its use on less costly articles of furniture and on woodwork.

It is preferred in most homes, because it cleans as it polishes, producing a high, dry, lasting lustre and bringing out the beauty of the grain.

O-Cedar Polish 30c. and 60c. a bottle, $1.50 to $3.50 a can.
O-Cedar Polish Mop, with 54-inch handle $2.00.

PRESSED FOR MONEY.

"Oh, Henry," exclaimed his wife, as she threw her arms rapturously about his neck, "I do love you so! Don't forget to leave me a couple of pounds when you go to town this morning—will you, dear?"

"And this," muttered Henry, softly disengaging himself from her fond embrace, "this is what you might call being pressed for money."—

'THIS MOTHER AND DAUGHTER

Both Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Steele, Ala.—"During the Change of Life I had hot flashes, was nervous, run down, and had sick headaches for two or three days at a time. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am much stronger and better in every way than I was. My daughter's health broke down last June from teaching school without a rest, and she has taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the Blood Medicine with good results. She is much better and teaching now and I give your medicine the praise. You are welcome to use this letter for the benefit of other suffering women."—Mrs. F. A. GAINES, R. 2, No. 1, Steele, Ala.

Women who suffer as Mrs. Gaines did should not hesitate to give this famous hot and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial, as the evidence that is constantly being published proves beyond question that this grand old remedy has relieved much suffering among women.

For confidential advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their forty years' experience is at your service.

LETTERS

Letters addressed to the Editor and intended for publication must be short, and legibly written. The longer an article the shorter the chance of insertion. All communications must bear the name and address of the writer, but not for publication unless the writer wishes. The publication or rejection of articles is a matter entirely in the discretion of the Editor.

POLITICAL CHICANERY.

To the Editor:—Political expediency often results in the adoption of more or less questionable tactics, some of which are more unsavory than others. While this must be recognized as part of the political game, it is to be hoped there will be no repetition of the deplorable spectacle provided by Canon Hinchliffe at his first campaign meeting on Wednesday, November 10, at the Alexandra Hall.

At this meeting a hero of the Great War—one who has been bedridden for about five years, and who has been in this city for about seven months, was carried on to the platform in his bed chair, and used to mould the sentiment of the meeting in favor of the candidature of Canon Hinchliffe. Surely nothing can be more repugnant to our returned men, their mothers, sisters and wives, also the general public. The dramatic references to this comrade, the speech which he was called upon to deliver, and the shameless exploitation of his utter helplessness for the purpose of capturing votes, stamp this meeting as an exhibition of the depths to which an aspirant for political honors will stoop, especially when that candidate makes a specialty of preaching the ethics of all that is good from his platform.

Let there be no misunderstanding, the political issue is not involved in the denunciation of this outrage; it is the action itself which is being attacked, and will continue to be attacked, no matter what parties or persons resort to such shameful methods.

Let the fight be fought on political issues, let it be as clean as Canon Hinchliffe declares it to be, but let there be no more of this mockery and hypocrisy, and let there be an end to any attempt on the part of any candidate or party to climb into a seat in the Legislature over the tortured bodies of the wrecks of the battlefield.

PREMIER MEIGHEN SPOKE IN REGINA

Regina, Nov. 15.—Premier Meighen, addressing the last meeting of his tour in Saskatchewan here Saturday night, said the Government would adhere to the protective tariff principle.

"If it gets the chance," called someone.

"We will find," replied Mr. Meighen, "that the long noise of the few are a long way from the real verdict of the Canadian people."

"Let's go to the country," shouted another.

Yes, and a large number of those now calling will be going to the woods," the Prime Minister commented, amidst laughter.

There were further interruptions and the speaker referred to "the rabble" to the left.

The Government's policy was to maintain a tariff just high enough to keep Canadian industries in Canada and to encourage them to expand in this country, and he asked if this made him a high protectionist.

"It's not high enough," he was told by someone.

"I know a lot of people think that, but I think it is about high enough," came the reply.

In another part of his speech he said that "as long as there are demagogues in the country, you'll hear the cry that the Government is controlled by 'big business'."

"So you are," he was told.

"And the ignoramus says the same thing," came from the Premier.

Mr. Meighen stated that the Government this year would collect about $100,000,000 in direct taxation.

Calder.

Hon. J. A. Calder was interrupted freely at the beginning of his speech, but after he had told the audience that with his much-tried voice he could not compete with interrupters, he was given a good hearing.

IGNORANCE.

An old country couple came up to Lunnon town, to see the place where the roses on the cheeks of the maidens outshone the roses round the door.

"They saw many things that they had never seen 'down on the farm,' and then along the road came rolling an electric trolley."

They saw one or two other people get on to the trolley when they stood quite near where they were standing, so they thought that they, too, would like a ride.

As they were proceeding on the journey, they noticed the conductor stop the car every now and again.

Once he called out, "St. Mark's Church," and a man got out; a little later, when the car stopped, it was James Street, and then Victoria Bridge.

"Don't 'ee think us ort ter be gettin' art'?" the farmer's wife whispered to her spouse.

"Shisht!" replied the man. "Don't show yer ignorance! Wait ter get ter wait till our names are called!"

ABERDEEN AGAIN.

A man in search of a job found his way to Aberdeen, and was fortunate in getting a horse and van to drive round.

One day he was going his round as usual when the horse stopped, and absolutely refused to budge.

After exhausting his vocabulary, the unfortunate man scratched his head in despair, but at that moment a small boy chanced to pass by.

"What's up, mister?" he inquired.

The man confessed that he could not make the horse move.

The youngster said never a word, but solemnly raised first one hoof and looked at it, then the next, and the next; but when he came to the last, the horse absolutely refused to allow that one to be lifted.

After a great struggle, in which the driver of the van assisted the boy, the horse's hoof was lifted, and there on the road beneath lay six pence.

FASHIONS IN FISH

Some Experience Drawn From Demand For Salmon in This Province.

British Columbia salmon provides one of our most important food fishes. Three species of this fish are utilized by the canners, namely, sockeye, pink and chums.

The sockeye is what is known as the red salmon and is always in demand; as a result of the heavy demand, the species is threatened with ultimate extinction. Prices have risen to the point where sockeye salmon may be considered almost a luxury.

An anomalous condition existed during the recent salmon fishing season on the British Columbia coast, when the Alaska fisheries were shipping their red salmon to British Columbia, while British Columbia fisheries were shipping their pink and chums to United States canneries. This was due to the lack of a market in Canada for pink and chums; whereas there was a demand for them in the United States.

Red salmon is in demand only because it has been accepted by fashion or, usage as its choice. Dr. Edward Prince, Chairman of the Biological Board of Canada, in addressing the Commission of Conservation, said:

"When I say the value of canned salmon rests more on the color of the meat of the fish than upon its flavor, you will see how important it is to know to what the color is due. The best flavored salmon on the Pacific coast is least in demand on the market because the color is pale. The inferior salmon, of a rich red color, brings the best price, and takes the lead, because of its color, this having no relation to excellence of flavor or edible superiority."

Greatest Ever:—The suitor had stated his case in a few halting sentences. "But have you achieved any success in life?" asked the adored one's father.

"Oh, boy! Have I!" blurted the happy youth. "Why, didn't I make it clear to you that your daughter has promised to be my wife?"

Some months ago Alderman Todd persuaded the Council to instruct the City Solicitor to ask the Provincial Legislature at its next session to amend the motor regulations so that no tail lights would have to be left burning on cars parked on streets lighted by cluster lights.

A. held a rummage sale Saturday afternoon in St. John's Hall, Herald Street, which proved very successful in every way, the sum of $40 being added to the treasury account. Mrs. Oscar Bass and Mrs. Crane were the conveners. The society's annual meeting will be held in the Arts and Crafts Room, Union Bank Building, to-morrow evening, commencing at 8 o'clock.

Masquerade at Saanichton.—A merry crowd of dancers gathered in the Agricultural Hall at Saanichton on Friday evening for the masquerade dance, given under the auspices of the North and South Saanich Agricultural Society. Some striking costumes were in evidence and the prizes were awarded as follows: best dressed lady, Miss Mobbs, of Victoria; as a Highlander; best dressed gentleman, Russell Crawford, Saanichton. Spanish forehead; best original lady, Miss E. Jeune, as a White Wyandotte rooster; best original gentlemen, Miss Doris McKenzie as "Johnny Walker."

Police Clearing Up Vancouver Robbery

Vancouver, Nov. 15.—Though no arrests have been made in connection with the robbery Saturday of S. M. Blackway, cashier of the Imperial Oil Company at Robson and Cambie Streets here, when $1,500 in cash and $20,000 in cheques were stolen, the police are expecting developments to-day that will result in the case being cleared up.

The story told by Austin Wadman, of Seattle, whose automobile was used by the bandits, has been carefully checked up and the police say that they can find nothing whatever to lead them to believe that he had any knowledge of the affair and are prepared to accept his statement that the car was stolen from him earlier on the day of the robbery.

Drydock Company Ready With Plan For Meeting of Claims

Vancouver, Nov. 15.—Negotiations carried out over the week-end in connection with the Prince Rupert Drydock & Engineering Company's financial condition have thrown a much brighter light on the situation. The dispatch from Prince Rupert to the effect that Newman Erb, president of the concern, has agreed to pay one-third of the claims is, according to R. D. Dinning, manager of the Canadian Creditors' Association, misleading as it sets forth only a part of Mr. Erb's offer.

Mr. Erb's wife is to the effect that his company is willing to pay all claims of $100 and under in full and, and one third of all other claims at once. He will then pay one-third of the remainder when the ninth instalment on the ships is paid by the Government, and the remaining one-third will be paid when the tenth instalment is paid. This information was received with considerable satisfaction by local creditors.

H. J. Turner, manager of the Wallace Shipyards, went to Prince Rupert last week and has been in conference with the creditors at the Northern port.

Headstones For Soldiers' Graves

Imperial War Graves Commission to Carry on Work in Canada

Ottawa, Nov. 15.—(Canadian Press) Some 500 graves located in 1,200 cemeteries scattered throughout the Dominion will be marked with suitable headstones, beautified and given perpetual care by the Imperial War Graves Commission. These are the graves of members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force and of the Royal Air Force who died in Canada or on their way to Canada on their return from the front. Included in the number are a few graves of enemy aliens who died during internment and which must, under the terms of the peace treaty, be looked after by the work of the Imperial War Graves Commission in Canada is just beginning.

While overseas recently, Hon. Guthrie, Minister of Militia, conferred with members of the Commission and discussed with them the steps necessary to be taken to carry on the work in Canada.

As Agent.

It was decided that the Canadian Government, through the Department of Militia and Defence, would act as agent of the Imperial War Graves Commission in doing the work. The Commission is operating under a royal charter, and not only the Imperial Government, but also the Governments of the Dominions participate in its work, the expense being borne by the various countries in proportion to the number of their dead.

Marking.

As far as Canada is concerned, the work of the Commission will consist largely in marking graves of soldiers with appropriate headstones, and arranging that they be cared for. It is not the intention to move the bodies or to gather them into special cemeteries, but where a number of them are buried in one place, it may be possible to provide some central memorial to mark the spot, in addition to the headstones.

As in France and Belgium, where the Commission has been operating for some time, the keynote in the marking of graves will be equality and uniformity of treatment for all. The rank of a soldier will make absolutely no difference in the location or marking of his grave.

Silby Barret, international board member, positively declared that there would be no strike in this district.

WRECK INQUIRY BEGAN TO-DAY

Vancouver, Nov. 15.—Wreck Commissioner J. D. Macpherson, assisted by Captain Gerald Bridge, Esquimalt, and Captain J. Park, master of the steamer City of Victoria, as nautical assessors, this morning opened the inquiry into the wreck of the steamer Prince Rupert, which went ashore in a thick fog at Swanson Bay on September 23. The inquiry is being held at the Provincial Court House and is being conducted on orders received from the Department of Marine and Fisheries. A number of shipping men were present.

Among the witnesses listed are Captain Duncan Mackenzie, master of the vessel, First Officer Roderick MacKenzie, Third Officer Kinsack, Chief Engineer D. N. Cochran, J. Dakin, lookout man, and Watchman Burke. The majority of the crew returned from the scene of the wreck by the steamer Prince George which arrived during the week-end.

Quoting from the wheelhouse log, Captain Mackenzie, the first witness, told of the time at which the vessel had passed various points. There had been very thick fog at intervals, he reported.

It was evident from the later evidence that the cause of the accident was the deceptive echo which prevailed in this vicinity as a result of the mist. Owing to the overlapping sound waves, one could not tell from where certain sounds originally came.

PREACHER SAYS NO BARRIER BETWEEN LIVING AND DEAD

Toronto, Nov. 15.—Declaring that there was no barrier between the living and the dead, and that the dead were not sleeping, but were "gloriously, consciously awake," Rev. Dr. W. H. World's Champions to Play To-morrow Night

Tilden, Johnston, Washburn and Hardy Coming Over To-morrow Afternoon—Thousand Spectators Expected—Arrangements Completed

All arrangements have been completed for the exhibition tennis matches by members of the U. S. Davis Cup team at the Drill Hall, Bay Street to-morrow. It has been definitely decided that the games will take place to-morrow evening commencing at 8.30, the date of sailing of the Niagara having been postponed until Wednesday. The members of the team will arrive here at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, and will be taken in charge by the president and committee of the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club.

The American Davis Cup team is an exceptionally strong one and tennis experts in the United States freely predict that they will bring the cup to America. Australia on home courts will be a hard nut to crack. Strong teams have gone to Australia before and come back empty handed. It is fair to say, however, that Tilden and Johnston made a clean sweep in Europe last summer and returned to the States to repeat the dose.

Tilden's First Visit.

This will be the first visit of W. T. Tilden II, to Victoria and tennis fans should not fail to see him in action. He is said to possess a bigger variety of strokes than any other player in the world, and has a most uncanny habit of pulling off most unexpected strokes. He is very tall and lanky, with tremendous reach, and few players are able to beat him at the net. W. F. Johnston, his teammate, is the only player to do so up to the present. Johnston has beaten Tilden three times in succession since the team's arrival on the coast.

Johnston Here Before.

In 1912 Johnston, then a youngster of eighteen or nineteen, came to Victoria and carried off the British Columbia championship. He was an immense favorite on and off the courts and will be welcomed by many of his old acquaintances and friends.

Watson Washburn, ranking fourth in the United States, is said to be the steadiest player on the team, not so well known as Tilden and Johnston but a hard man to beat. He has a peculiar style all his own.

Capt. Sam Hardy is the captain and manager of the team and while not mentioned so prominently as his teammates has a reputation as a tennis player in every quarter of the globe as well as a thorough sportsman.

A Great Court.

The team will play on one of the finest indoor courts in America. The surface is composed of an asphaltic composition laid on a foundation of reinforced concrete and as was recently stated by a noted local expert, "the balls will come off that surface like chain lightning," therefore tennis of the fastest character will be played, and played by the World's champions. Special lighting has been provided and seating accommodation for a thousand persons. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and General Ross, G. O. C. M. D. No. 11, have kindly consented to allow the matches to be played under the auspices of the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club.

It is expected that the accommodation provided will be taxed to the full. It will therefore be advisable for all who intend witnessing the matches to be at the hall in good time to secure a seat. There will be no reserved seats. Spectators will be admitted to the hall by the Field Street entrance. Doors will be open at 8 o'clock.

The Victoria Lawn Tennis Club, under whose auspices and by whose enterprise Victorians have been given the opportunity to see these famous players, have set the admission fee for adults at $1.00, but in order to encourage the younger generation to take up this splendid game with such fine associations and spirit of true sportsmanship have decided to admit all youngsters of school age at half price.

No Game in Vancouver.

Vancouver, Nov. 15.—William T. Tilden, United States national champion; William M. Johnston, Watson Washburn and Samuel D. Hardy, American tennis players who are on their way to New Zealand in quest of the Davis Cup, arrived here Sunday, and will leave to-night for Victoria, where they will engage in a series of games with Victoria players to-morrow afternoon, after which they will embark on the steamer Niagara for the Antipodes. It is doubtful if the American players will play any games here to-day, owing to the wet weather which prevails. Vancouver has no indoor courts like Victoria.

Northampton, 3; Guys, 3. Swansea, 9; Torquay, 0. Cambridge University, 14; Leicester, 11. Newport, 8; Cardiff, 7. Gloucester, 24; Cheltenham, 3. Bristol, 21; Plymouth, 3.

Lemon Stops Vets-Mets Game; Close Scores in Week-end Soccer Events

Saturday's soccer results were as follows:

Senior League.
Victoria Wests 2; Sons of England 1.
G.W.V.A., 2; Metropolis, 0. (Game called).
Yarrows, 1; Comrades, 0.
Intermediate League.
Esquimalt, 3; Metropolis, 3.

Although the teams in the upper half of the senior league were competing against the under-dogs on Saturday afternoon, anyone who watched the games would have concluded that they were all clubs of about equal ability. The clashes proved that the teams are not as uneven as a lot of critics thought. The teams in the lower half of the standing acquitted themselves in grand style and led the haughty leaders a merry dance.

There were all kinds of surprises. The long-kicking Sons of England had the league leaders worried all the way, and the Wests only emerged victorious by the odd goal in three. It was tough and go with Yarrows in their fight with the Comrades. The shipbuilders got away with the only goal of the match.

The senior match between the Vets and Mets ended in a regrettable manner. It is too bad that Referee Lock had to call the game with twenty minutes to go as the result of the spectators crowding on the field and some one potting him in the eye with a lemon. The Mets were counting on this game but found the Vets too strong for them in the first half. In the second half trouble brewed, and with the Vets leading, 2-0, the game was halted.

Wests Turn the Trick.

The Wests kicked off against the Sons at the Royal Athletic Park. The leaders started without Mulr and Peden and the Sons pressed immediately. White drove them back and Finnegan had to save, giving a corner. Jimmy Sherratt took the kick and Mulcahy booted behind. From there the Sons came down and Shandley saved a stinger from A. Kerley. The ground was very slippery, the players not being able to hold their feet. Cosier was getting near the goal. The Sons continued to have their share of the game until half time, which arrived with the score 1-1.

The West commenced the second half strongly and were swarming round Finnegan, but he was right there, and turned shot after shot aside, then the Sons broke away, and Whyte relieved. Cosier passed to F. Kerley, but Kerley, interested, sent Mulcahy down the wing, but Pat could not seem to regulate the distance between the side line and the goal. Time and again he put the ball across to the other wing. Instead of locating the goal, the half was going past and the West started to press. Jimmy Sherratt playing a wonderful game, but his centers were got away by Greig or Lock. With ten minutes to go Johnny Peden got a pass from Allen, and racing past Lock scored a fine goal. The Sons were not done by this goal, and the ball bouncing up the field, went to Kerley's arm. Instead of being ordered a penalty, Alf Kerley took the shot, and to the relief of the West, Shandley outgassed him, and made a fine save. There was only five minutes left for play, and the West were crowding Finnegan. Plump sent in a daisy, and Finnegan did well to get his hand to it. For the winners Shandley only had a few shots, but the score all tickled ones to handle. Whyte was up to his own standard, Baker and Allen worked hard, the former holding the Sons' right wing well. Toots, Plump and Sherratt sent the ball forward, giving a splendid exhibition, his centers were well timed and accurate, never once did he misplace them. Mulcahy, while he played well up the field was far too strong with his fine shots, otherwise played good. Finnegan for the Sons kept a splendid goal. The backs did not protect him like their opponents. Thomas played a clever game against his old team mates. Attwell was easy their best forward. There was not much combination about the Sons, but they kept plugging away the ball, not allowing the West to settle down to their combination.

The teams were: Victoria West—Shandley; Whyte and Ockell; Baker, S. Sherratt and Ality. J. Sherratt, Plump, Peden, Mulr and Mulcahy. Sons of England—Finnegan; Lock and Greig; Thomas, Vincent and Davidson; P. Kerley, Cosier, A. Kerley, Walters and Attwell.

Yarrows vs. Comrades.

A fair crowd of spectators gathered at Beacon Hill to watch Yarrows and the Comrades battle in a return game, the shipbuilders having won the first clash by 3-2. The Comrades started off with a well directed charge and seemed intent upon reversing the result of the previous game. For the first ten minutes the soldiers kept the ball in Yarrows' territory, the shipbuilders' forward line being weakened by the absence of Merfield and Davis. Eventually Yarrows steadied and made repeated attacks on the Comrades' goal. From one of the shipbuilders' raids Rose sent the ball to Prevost, who had no difficulty in beating Heatherington 15 minutes after the start. This tally injected some speed into the play, and both teams fought from end to end in such a fashion, a noticeable feature being the strong kicking of Yarrows' backs. The Comrades' forwards showed better combination, but they overdid it when near goals, and gave Yarrows' backs plenty of time to clear. On the other hand Yarrows' forwards kept the ball swinging, and were much more dangerous. Several times the soldiers' goal had narrow escapes, the inside forwards not keeping well enough up to take Bridges' centre. Swann had a fine opportunity when he got a nice pass from Bridges, driving the ball over the bar. The game was being fought in a fast and vigorous manner when half time arrived.

After the breather, the soldiers started off again with a rush to try and even up the score, but they found that the halves and backs of the villagers were working well and were repulsed time and again. E. Bridges, Swann and Prevost were having hard work, as the outside men were not giving them support, and were playing the inside game. Bridges in goal was having an easy day as the soldiers' shutouts seemed to be off color. The soldiers tried a re-arrangement, Bloom falling back to the second line, but still they could not penetrate the defence of Yarrows. Play was now transferred to the other end, where the Comrades' goal had several narrow escapes from Bridges and Swann, but Hetherington showed some fine clearing. Mulcahy got away and, evading two players slipped across a yard in front of goal with none of Yarrows' backs and half backs were too strong, and the final whistle went when Yarrows had the ball in on the soldiers' goal. The game was played in a very friendly spirit, and Referee Pearson had an afternoon in holding the players in hand. The teams were:

Comrades—Hetherington, Phillips, McConnell, Miller, Falchen, Harper, Bloom, Todd, Brewster, McMillone and Boulton.

Yarrows—Bridges, Mesher, Munro, Charman, Roe, Brown, Swann, Mulcahy, Cummins and Prevost.

The Lemon Incident.

The game at Central Park between the Mets and Vets had a very exceptional ending. A fight occurred and the referee was very much disturbed when a lemon came flying towards the referee. The trouble arose through a disagreement as to whether the referee was right in putting Owen, the captain of the Mets team, off the field. Ill feeling may have been the cause of the fight, but once the referee decided he had had enough of the game when this act occurred and made his retreat from the field.

The first half of the game proved to be a hard battle between the two teams. The ball had a tendency to stay in the middle of the field until it was slipped over to Clarkson, of the Vets, who took the ball up the field and landed a nice one into the net. But this was not the finish of all the good work which was to be done by this valiant team, and soon the ball was dangerously close to the goal. The ball was sent in from the left wing, and Wright kicked the leather into the goal on the rebound. Time was called before any further scoring was done.

The second half contained all the fun. It was the Mets' turn this time to get the ball away, and they did it quickly, and it was only the good work of Sherrington in goal that kept the score clear. As it was the Mets' nearly got away with a goal, the calling of a foul cancelling a goal. Then came the row and the game ended. When the game was called two men had been put off the field on the Mets' side, and the referee refused to continue the game.

G.W.V.A.—Sherrington, Rickinson, Broadner, Gibson, Shinnon, Harwood, Clarkson, Wright, Southern, Allan and Caslie.

Metropolis—Leeming, Church, Taylor, Wales, Owen, Webster, Cummings, Petticrew, Brynjolfsson, Cummins and Torry.

Another tie game between Esquimalt and the Mets, intermediate teams, was witnessed at Beacon Hill on Saturday. Although the Esquimalt team fielded only ten men they managed in keeping the game at a tie.

Amateurs Keen to Bring Famous Allan Cup West

RESPECTS DEMPSEY BUT HAS NO DOUBT CARPENTIER SAYS HE IS NOT GOING TO SLAUGHTER HOUSE; WELCOMED IN PARIS

Paris, Nov. 15.—Georges Carpentier, the heavyweight champion of Europe, returned from America richer by one million francs and with a great respect for the fighting ability of Jack Dempsey.

Carpentier, who was never a boastful man even before leaving France, when he had not yet seen Dempsey, said on his return that Dempsey was considered in America to be a "super-fighter," but that he would meet him with as much confidence as he did the British fighters, Wells and Beckett.

Won Match With Dempsey.

"The newspapers," said Carpentier, "reported Dempsey as saying he would lead me to the slaughter like an ox. I don't believe it. I have met Dempsey, who is really a very amiable gentleman. I even had one match with him when I won—but that was at golf. Dempsey's kind thought in sending me a wireless message when off Nantucket wishing us Godspeed was very gentlemanly." The beautiful remark attributed to Carpentier's manager at the Jersey City ball park, that Carpentier would beat the champion in two rounds, has now been modified to such expressions as "the difference in weight of fourteen pounds will be a great handicap" and "the man who lands the first blow will win."

"Kill the Frog"

Carpentier showed only a trace of bitterness when he referred to the "freak" raised by the American press concerning his bout with Levinson and the hissing and jeers to which he was subjected while acting as second to Charles Ledoux in the latter's bout at Madison Square Garden in New York. He seemed greatly amused at Dempsey's reference to the ring-side "sports" in evening clothes and bedecked with diamonds in Jersey City, who kept exhorting Levinson to "kill the frog."

VARSITY AND M'GILL PLAY OFF FOR TITLE

Great Struggle Anticipated at Kingston Next Saturday; Other Games

Kingston, Ont., Nov. 15.—The McGill-Varsity play-off for the championship of the senior intercollegiate union will take place in Kingston next Saturday. This was decided at a meeting of the executive of the C.I.R.P.U., held here Sunday morning, to decide upon a place for the play-off.

Work is being started on Monday morning toward the erection of temporary stands and a small army of workmen will be on the grounds putting up the stands.

Varsity Won.

Toronto, Nov. 15.—As was expected, Varsity had no difficulty in defeating Queen's Saturday, thus using McGill for the championship of the senior intercollegiate Rugby Union. The margin, 31 to 15, however, something of a surprise, as the best McGill could do at Montreal was to down the tri-color in the end-to-end rushes which were reason why Varsity could not have won by 50 points, but once the victory was assured, Cassels withdrew many of his regulars and sent in his substitutes, who were the cause of the rout.

Although the score was soon one-sided, an abundance of long runs, in which Breen and Mackenzie distinguished themselves, made it interesting enough for Varsity supporters.

Tigers Beat Montreal.

Montreal, Nov. 15.—Paying tribute to previous form by making a blunder in the closing moments of play, the Quebec rugby football team suffered their sixth straight defeat Saturday and closed their season without a win, when Hamilton Tigers scored a 10 to 5 victory in an interprovincial union game at the Coliseum.

O.A.C. Beat R.M.C.

Varsity Stadium, Toronto, Nov. 15.—Ontario Agricultural College of Guelph won the game for the intercollegiate title Saturday afternoon, defeating Royal Military College of Kingston by 20 to 5.

After Quebec Title.

Ottawa, Nov. 15.—The St. Brigid's team, winners of the Ottawa section honors, took a comfortable lead in the home-and-home series for the Quebec rugby football championship on Saturday afternoon when they vanquished the Westmount fourteen, 14 to 3.

B. C. Amateur Ice Hockey Association Decides on Six-Man Hockey so That Teams May Have Chance to Win World Honors

Seven-man hockey has been relegated to the scrap heap by the British Columbia Amateur Ice Hockey Association, and in all future games but six men will be allowed on the ice at one time. The association decided to adopt the abbreviated style at its annual meeting held in the Dominion Hotel on Saturday evening. The Vancouver and Victoria delegates were unanimous in deciding on the change and the result of the vote was greeted with applause. The move was described by many speakers as being a progressive one and in the best interests of both the players and the public. It was also stated that the former amateur hockey in British Columbia would be able to see in the very near future the realization of their fond hopes of bringing the Allan Cup, emblematic of the amateur championship of the hockey world, to this Province, which of late years has become the cabinet for both world's lacrosse trophies and many other handsome pieces of silverware.

This important matter was introduced to the meeting by John Mowat, of Victoria, vice-president of the association. He stated that six-man hockey would come, and he thought that a questionnaire should be sent to all players asking them which form they desired and that the matter be settled at the next general meeting.

Decide at Once.

Others took exception to the delay contending that a decision should be made at once. President W. G. Chester informed the meeting that he had "taken up the matter with Frank Patrick, President of the P.C.H.A., and found him in accord with the change. Mr. Patrick was quoted as saying that it was the proper game for amateurs.

G. D. Scott, of Vancouver, told of the decision of the Vancouver Amateur Ice Hockey Association to adopt the six-man style and said it had to come one way or the other. The abbreviated style was played throughout the rest of Canada and he wanted to know whether or not the players were prepared to "go down their sticks at the end of the season or carry on and go after the national honors. He contended that British Columbia teams were just on the verge of lifting the Allan Cup. He pointed out that games for the Allan Cup must be played with six-men and that the Western teams must familiarize themselves with that style of play if they wished to achieve success.

Practice Hours Too Short.

E. A. Mould, of Vancouver, secretary-treasurer of the association, who opposed the six-man scheme in Vancouver, stated that he did not think the teams could get enough practice to get into condition. It would require a lot of road-work, he stated. For the juniors he thought seven-man hockey the necessary style. On the vote being taken, however, Mr. Mould would fall in with the spirit of the majority.

W. C. Betschen, of Victoria, secretary of the Canadian Amateur Ice Hockey Association, advocated the adoption of six-man hockey. He told of the difficulties of introducing it in the East, but once the fans saw it they took to it like ducks to water. It was fast and snappy. The East would never go back to seven-man hockey, he said.

"I would like to see a swift game and if six-man hockey is the best then let's adopt it," remarked President Chester.

Leo Dowds, of Victoria, said it was a progressive move and would be in the interest of the game to adopt it. "It is a faster game," he commented.

More Thrills.

Percy Watson and Darrell Spence, both Victoria delegates, advocated the change. Mr. Watson was of the opinion that the six-man game provided more thrills and referred to the end-to-end rushes which drew the spectators into a delirium of excitement. He also pointed out that the play was more open and there was an absence of players lurching.

Major Hendy, of the Victoria Garrison team, thought it much like the change in the rule of the road. It was pretty hard to make some people see the need and necessity of it. Major Hendy then moved the following resolution, which was seconded by Mr. Scott and unanimously carried:

The Resolution.

"Resolved that six-man hockey be adopted in British Columbia thereby making it universal throughout Canada."

The decision to have a new order of things brought up a number of questions relative to the constitution. A committee consisting of Cory Hesse, M. C. Macken, G. D. Scott, Percy Watson and W. S. Betschen was appointed to go over the former constitution and draft in necessary parts from the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association constitution.

One interesting matter in regard to the number of players to be allowed was decided in the championship games only six men will be on the ice, and but two substitutes and an extra goalie in uniform. During the season each club will be allowed to carry ten men, six regulars and four substitutes, one of which may be a goal mender.

After Allan Cup.

The meeting became enthused over the decision to adopt six-man hockey and at once began to talk about the Allan Cup. Everyone was optimistic that sooner or later this trophy would

SPORTING NEWS

REP RUGBY TEAM TO BE ANNOUNCED SOON

Selection Committee Will Make Announcement To-morrow

To-morrow Victorians will know the team which will represent the city against Vancouver next Saturday in the first inter-city game for the McKechnie Cup. The selection committee of the Rugby Union is meeting tonight to pick the team. They have a difficult task ahead of them as there has been more available material this year than ever before in the past.

The Union acted very wisely in deciding the hold test games in order to have a good chance to look over the available material. The game last Saturday and the week previous served to good purpose and the selection committee now knows the good points and weaknesses of each player.

Reds Win Again.
In Saturday's test match the Reds again won. They trimmed the Blues by 22 to 5. The Reds had the best of the play and the team showed up remarkably well. The Reds rushed over a try a few minutes after the game started. Maizon being responsible for the tally. The Blues fought back and five minutes later McIlreid evaded the pack and trotted over. Honeychurch converted the try. This was the only scoring done by the Blues.

Ker carried the ball across after taking a pass from D. M. Grant and the Reds again went into the lead. The Reds showed clear superiority and had three more touchdowns in quick succession. E. Gillespie, Ker and Maizon were responsible for the tries and two of them were converted by Grant.

In the second half the Reds scored but one. McCallum making the touch. J. F. Grant, of the Royal Naval College, who played for the Blues at half-back, gave a very creditable performance and Goodacre, another youngster, also showed up well. W. C. Moresby refereed.

The Teams.
A Team—Fullback, Hickey; three-quarters, Ker, S. Gillespie, E. Gillespie, J. Maizon; five-eighths, D. M. Grant; halves, Stewart and Grubb; forwards, Drummond, J. McRae, Herman, Parfitt, Travis.

AMATEUR UNION WILL NOT INVESTIGATE

Calgary, Nov. 15.—Failure on the part of Frank Patrick, president of the Coast Hockey League, to submit any evidence in substantiation of his charges of professionalism against the Alberta Big Four led the board of governors of the Alberta branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada in session here Saturday to pass a resolution to the effect that no investigation can be opened until such time as evidence is supplied which will incriminate players operating on any of the Big Four clubs.

A letter from President Patrick was read to the meeting by Brigadier-General, H. F. McDonald, C.M.G., D.S.O., president of the Alberta branch. Mr. Patrick in this communication says that the whole fabric of the Big Four is rotten with professionalism and he casts a general slur on the organization, but fails to make any definite statement in regard to the status of any players.

Should Act.
Dr. Stanley formerly of High River but now of Calgary, a governor of the Alberta branch, said that the public did not look to the amateur union to act the part of "stool pigeons" and then sit as judges on the evidence which they secured themselves. He said that as governing body they were responsible for a decision on evidence adduced in substantiation of definite charges and this was the function which the public expected them to perform.

"NABOBS" BEAT C. P. R.

A wonderful game took place on the Albin grounds between the C. P. R. and Kelly Douglas Nabobs on Saturday afternoon. The C. P. R. put up a great team with their good combination, and gave the Nabobs a hard run for points, but the Nabobs came across with beautiful work and put the railway magistrates to rout with a score of 7 to 2. Hymers, Jones and Patterson for the Nabobs being responsible for the heavy scoring. The teams were:

C. P. R.—McKay, Morrison, Robertson, Williams, Thomas, Roberts.

JAMES BAY JUNIORS DEFEAT FORESTERS

The match at Central Park between James Bay and the Juniors A. O. F. resulted in a win for the former by the score of 3 to 0. The ground was heavy, and as usual in the junior games this season the heavier team had the edge. All the James Bays played well. For the Foresters, Taylor and Judd were all that was desired. Taylor in particular. Salloway in goal gave a good display.

It appears to be a great handicap on some of the junior teams to come up to the eighteen-year-old limit, and the smaller fry among the boys would like to see some of the big lads of eighteen placed in the higher-ups. The next games for juniors may be under the auspices of the Junior League.

GRASS HOCKEY RESULTS

The two men's teams of the Victoria Grass Hockey Club were successful Saturday in winning their matches against the Garrison and Oak Bay respectively. The former match being won by the club by 6 to 1 and the latter by 5 to 2.

Y.M.C.A. SWIMMING TANK IS NOW OPEN

The swimming pool at the Y. M. C. A., which has been under repairs for the past few days, is now filled with water and ready for service. Through a defect 200 feet of tiling fell in and the pool had to be emptied. It is hoped that arrangements can be made to have the Australian swimmers perform here.

WAR VETS LOSE

New York, Nov. 15.—(Canadian Press)—The British War Veterans soccer team lost to Astoria six to one in a Metropolitan League game here yesterday.

OLD COUNTRY SOCCER NOTES

London, Nov. 15.—(Canadian Associated Press).—Association League football yielded nothing very extraordinary on Saturday. London first division teams had their best day of the season, all three winning. Tottenham beat Oldham 5 to 2, bringing their total goals scored to 34, the largest number any club has scored. Tottenham's position is only seventh in the league table, which is headed by Liverpool and Burnley with 20 points each.

Chelsea beat Preston and the Arsenal defeated Blackburn luckily by two goals.

Villas Lost Out.
A great struggle between West Bromwich and Aston Villa ended in the former's victory by 2 to 1. Liverpool beat Bradford readily at Bradford, after having gone down easily on the latter's grounds a week ago.

Middlesboro has in two weeks secured two victories over Sunderland. In the second division the best individual performance was by Pudefoot, who scored four goals for West Ham.

By their smart victory over Notts Forest, Shields are again leading the second division with Cardiff, who at home defeated Leicester, in close attendance and Bristol City a good third.

Southampton on Top.
Southampton could only draw with Queen's Park but remains at the top of the third division with 21 points, one more than either the first or second division leaders have obtained. Luton comes second with 20 points. A most striking reversal of form was shown in Swindon-Millwall match. Swindon won 4 to 1. Last week Millwall won against Swindon 3 to 1.

Norwich, who recently wiped out the reproach of being the only club in the third division without one match won, obtained a further success against Reading. No fewer than seven of their matches have been drawn.

of Wong Chow and Company the accused Wong carries on business as a ladies' tailor. After some discussion, in which Lum is alleged to have stated that he feared the police, who were on the game, Lum handed over a package of cocaine, stated Milne to the detective. Detective Siciliano endeavored to tell the court of a previous occasion when he and Detective Phipps had laid a trap for the accused, when they had telephoned for some cocaine and some heroin, but the detective was stopped by Mr. Moresby, counsel for the accused, who would not admit the evidence, as not relative to the date of the case in question.

Mr. Moresby put Wong Chow in the box, the latter denying the statement made by Milne, when he was called as a witness, that he ever saw Milne before. Wong was not identified with Lum in business he claimed, and knew nothing of his doings. Lum, in the witness box, told of his arrest and searching by Detective Siciliano on the evening of November 2, and also of the events of the night of November 4, but stated that the detective had tried to "plant" the cocaine on him on that last occasion.

After some legal argument in which considerable acerbity was developed, the case was remanded until Wednesday.

URGE CITY TO JOIN THE UNION

Victoria Assured Municipal Union Will Look After Its Interests

The City Council may be asked by some of its members in the near future to re-enter the fold of the B. C. Union of Municipalities, it was learned at the City Hall to-day.

Representatives of various municipalities who met in Mayor Porter's office this morning to consider the taxation problem, took the opportunity to urge members of the Victoria

City Council to re-consider their decision to remain outside the Union. It was pointed out in an unofficial way to the Victoria delegates that Victoria undoubtedly would suffer as a result of its present attitude. It was declared, in addition, that Victoria's interests certainly would be protected by the Union in legal matters.

The dispute which Victoria has had with the Union, has been caused by the fact that the Union solicitor, F. A. McDiarmid, has conducted cases against the city. To-day the civic authorities were assured that Mr. McDiarmid's activities had been given careful and critical consideration by the Union at its Nelson convention, and that in the future Victoria would have little to fear in this connection.

Nothing official was done in the matter, of course, and all discussion was of a personal nature. Some of the Victoria delegates, it is understood, were considerably impressed with the arguments put forward and it is believed that the question of Victoria's membership in the Union will be before the City Council before long.

MCGILL CAMPAIGN FOR FUNDS MAKES ENCOURAGING START

Montreal, Nov. 15.—McGill University centennial endowment campaign, which opened to-day, already had made a magnificent start, the announcement having been made on Saturday that well over the first $1,000,000 toward the minimum of $5,000,000 which is the objective had been subscribed, all of it by private individuals and business institutions of Montreal. The total of this pre-subscription was $1,021,000, made up of six individual subscriptions of $100,000, one of $50,000, nine of $25,000, six of $10,000, two of $5,000, one of $2,500, and one of $1,500.

Cheques from a distance include one for $1,000 from Lady Osler, Oxford, Eng., widow of the late Sir William Osler.

VESSELS FORCED TO SHELTER ON LAKES

Craft Damaged and Shipping Disrupted by Winter Storms

500, Mich., Nov. 13.—Almost every boat that comes through the locks from Lake Superior is covered with ice and reports storms "very fierce," driving many vessels to shelter. The Francis L. Robbins was forced to return, after running into the northeast and smashing her forward deck works and wrecking the pilot house. One seaman was hurt and taken off here for hospital treatment. She left again for Duluth, where she will make repairs before loading. Down-bound steamers report an unidentified vessel ashore at Pancake shoal, above Whitefish Point. She appeared in bad shape, driving many vessels to shelter. Some rumors are current to the effect that the vessel had foundered, but no confirmation of the latter has been obtained. Opinion among marine men here is divided as to whether the Francis Widlar, now reported three days overdue from Duluth, is ashore or has foundered in the storm. Down-bound steamers reported seeing nothing of her, but a few boats, on which an unknown steamer, supposedly with deck markings, was last seen, considerably out of the track of down-bound steamers as vessels may be ashore there and not seen from the regular track of navigation. The steamer still run into a small gasoline boat in the snow squall near Detroit, sinking it, but rescued the crew of three men. The up-bound fleet has been lying in shelter under Whitefish Point. Down-bound steamers report a fleet of fifty steamers anchored there. Weather conditions continue cold with snow flurries.

FAMOUS CRAFT SOLD

AUX.-SCH. KING AND WINGE. The fishing vessel King and Winge, which became famous as the craft which rescued the survivors of the Karik party of the Stefansson Arctic expedition, is reported to have been sold to the United States Government by the National Independent Fisheries.

DUTCH OPERATING NOVEL LIFEBOAT

An unusual type of lifeboat which operates by sucking water up from the ocean and blowing it back again, and so obtaining a speed of nine miles an hour, has been adopted by a life-saving crew which works in stormy waters along the Dutch coast. The boat has a hole in the bottom, through which the water is drawn by an intake pipe which leads to a powerful centrifugal pump operated by a 104 horse-power steam engine. The water is then forced backward into the sea through two outlet pipes opening at the bottom of the craft. The boat is controlled by shutting off, either wholly or in part, one or the other of these outlet pipes. If one is shut off it goes to starboard, if the other, it goes to port. If both are shut off, the water diverges harmlessly over the sides while the suction goes on at the intake, it is claimed the boat rests almost still in the stormiest of seas, the suction holding it firmly on the water. The Dutch life savers have found that this craft keeps steadier than any boat propelled with oars or by screws. It is fifty-eight feet long and has a capacity for from forty to 100 passengers, depending upon the state of the sea. It has been in use for some time and has saved many lives.

ONE AGAINST THE ARCHBISHOP

In his new book, "Our Family Affairs," Mr. E. F. Benson, the novelist, tells of a joke he played on his father, the Archbishop of Canterbury. The Archbishop was a loving but exacting parent, although he sometimes needed. He certainly did so one hot Sunday afternoon when Mr. Benson was deputed to read the life of St. Francis of Assisi and the assembled family in the garden. The tranquility of the listeners became after a while so remarkable that the reader decided to test it by giving them a senseless jumble of lines selected haphazard from different pages of the volume. No one stirred till the cessation of his voice caused the Primate of England to open his eyes. "Wonderful!" he said. "Is that the end, Fred?" "Yes, that's all," said Fred.

MANY DELEGATES IN CONFERENCE HERE

Cordial Keynote Struck at Meeting of Northwest Water-front Employers' Union

The cementing of cordial relations between employer and employee was the keynote of the speeches at the quarterly meeting of the Northwest Waterfront Employers' Union. Over thirty representatives of steamship and stevedoring companies were present, delegates coming from Vancouver, Seattle, Tacoma, Astoria and Portland. The conference was held at the Empress Hotel, following a luncheon tendered by the local members of the organization.

A. F. Haines, vice-president and general manager of the Pacific Steamship Company, presided, the principal speakers being A. F. Haines, A. L. Lindsay, an expert on labor problems; K. J. Middleton, manager of Dodwell & Co., Seattle; W. C. Dawson, Seattle; F. W. Peters, general executive, P. H. western lines, Vancouver; and Captain James Gibson, president of the International Stevedoring Company, Seattle. Mr. Lindsay, who is an expert on labor conditions, introduced the methods for the betterment of relations between employer and labor. It was a lucid discourse which opened up many new features bearing upon the solution of labor problems along the lines of closer co-operation.

Mr. Middleton gave an instructive and interesting talk on labor conditions. In concluding his remarks Mr. Middleton branched out into a broader field, urging the necessity of cordial and harmonious relations between the United States and Great Britain, the subject of cementing the peace of the world.

Mr. Peters gave a talk on the conditions prevailing on the waterfront at Vancouver, while W. C. Dawson spoke of the waterfront conditions at Seattle. The speakers were introduced by President Haines, who handled the meeting in characteristic style and injected a fund of good-humor into the proceedings.

Among the delegates from Vancouver were: F. W. Peters, Captain Edward Beetham, manager Canadian Pacific Ocean Services, Ltd., Captain David Baird, of the V. & V. Stevedoring Co., and Captain Crawford, of the Empire Stevedoring Company.

The local men present were: A. H. Piggett, William M. Allan, W. R. Dale, James McArthur, Harry T. Barnes, D. N. Cameron, Captain and Edward Kelso, and others.

CAPTAIN M' DOUGALL PASSES TO REST

Well-known Mariner Succumbed This Morning From Heart Trouble

Another old-time skipper of the Victoria sailing fleet passed away this morning in the person of Captain Alfred McDougall, of 1038 Seaview Avenue.

The late captain was a well-known figure on the Victoria waterfront who came to the coast from Maitland, N. S., in the early days of the sealing industry and commanded various sealers plying out of this port to the North. He had been a resident of this Province for the past twenty-six years.

At the time the French wooden steamships were being built here by the Foundation Company, Captain McDougall was foreman rigger at the Point Hope yard.

Prior to his association with the sealing industry, Captain McDougall sailed the high seas in both steam and sail.

The late skipper was sixty-four years of age. He leaves, besides his widow, one son, Hedley; three daughters, all of Victoria, and a brother, Duncan McDougall, of Maitland, N. S.

PRINCESS BEATRICE RESUMES SERVICE

Will Likely Take Skagway Run While Princess Mary Comes Coal Burner

After being overhauled here the C.P.R. steamship Princess Beatrice left port yesterday, taking the night run to Seattle. The Princess Beatrice will leave Vancouver on Wednesday night resuming her schedule to Ocean Falls and Prince Rupert. The Princess Royal, which sustained damage to her starboard rail on her last northbound trip in collision with the Marmon and her tow, the Louisiana, will then come to this port for repairs.

It is possible that the Princess Beatrice will take the November 27 sailing out of Vancouver to Skagway, relieving the steamship Princess Mary, which, following the completion of her present trip to Alaska, is to be re-converted into a coal-burner.

The Princess Mary will be the first of the company's fleet to be re-equipped for the consumption of coal, a policy decided upon by the C.P.R. owing to the precarious oil fuel situation.

The changing of the Princess Mary's furnaces and alterations to her bunkering space will be effected at the Victoria Machinery Dept.

While the various ships of the fleet are being altered to burn coal, the coal-burners Princess Beatrice and Princess Royal will be used by the company in maintaining its services.

The alterations to the Princess Mary will occupy about three weeks.

The indications are that the steamship Tees will be used on the West Coast of Vancouver Island route while the Princess Maquinna is being equipped to burn coal.

BRITISH SHIPS IN BLACK SEA NEUTRAL

Admiral Denies Reports War-ships Would Blockade Bolshevik Area

London, Nov. 15.—As Great Britain has never recognized the Russian Government in South Russia and is now proceeding with negotiations aiming at the opening of trade relations with Soviet Russia, the British navy will continue to observe strict neutrality in the Black Sea, it was stated today. Reports from Constantinople that the British navy would assist in the blockade of Black Sea ports were denied by the Admiralty.

British ships have not been called upon to transport refugees from the Crimea, and the Admiralty said today it had not been decided whether it would assist in getting the refugees away.

CANADA IS POPULAR AS LAND OF PROMISE

The British Overseas Settlement Committee, according to advices from London has received nearly 50,000 applications from ex-service men and women for emigration to all parts of the Empire. About one-fifth of the applicants are women who intend to take up domestic or land work. Most of the men desire to go on farms. Canada is the favorite Dominion. Between 6,000 and 7,000 applicants expressed a preference for this country, while Australia, New Zealand and South Africa are next in order of popularity. With dependents the total interest in well over 100,000 persons. The lists for ex-service men close December 31 and applications are now pouring in at the rate of 1,000 a week.

"That's the seventh time that young man has passed our house," said a woman sitting at a window. "Then why don't you come away from the window?" "Not likely," I don't see why I should give in first."

STEFANSSON TELLS STORY OF CANADIAN ARCTIC EXPEDITION

First Presbyterian Church Filled to Hear Distinguished Explorer

CONQUERING THE ICE BY NOVEL METHODS

Every section of the community contributed its quota to the splendid audience which greeted Vilhjalmur Stefansson at the First Presbyterian Church on Saturday evening when he came to relate the story of the Canadian Arctic Expedition, which left Esquimaux for polar regions in June, 1913.

Mr. Stefansson tells his story with humor and anecdote, and what is rarer in lectures of polar expeditions, with a desire to minimize rather than to magnify the sterling qualities required in the northern ice. As the story is developed it is not difficult to understand why he is regarded by his fellow explorers as the greatest living ice traveler. The methods which he practices, unique in polar research, of living on the country, thereby escaping the trials of carrying a large quantity of food and fuel into the unknown north, were fully explained.

Wonderful Resources.
Mr. Stefansson stated, and it is in keeping with his effort at Ottawa last winter to interest the Senate and Commons in the meat bearing animals of the Far North, that it is his object in the present tour to show Canadians that the vast islands north of the mainland of this Dominion, the archipelagoes which separate Canada from the unexplored regions are capable of producing valuable commodities, particularly meat, and that instead of a country eternally covered by ice and snow, a forbidding wilderness where the temperature makes life an impossibility, on the other hand grass grows rich, and herds of untamed animals roam, awaiting the hunter.

The New Principle.
In keeping with the policy of showing that the exploration of Canada's polar regions should not be conducted as the majority of those who have followed in the wake of Baffin and Frohisher, down to the time of the late Rear-Admiral Peary, Mr. Stefansson told how he has learned to live off the land, how the seal can be made to furnish both food and fuel, and how it is possible to avoid the slaughtering of the precious dogs—guardians of surprise from prowling bears—in fact to complete sledge journeys with the animals rather than when the party leaves its base.

Effect of Karluk Loss.
Mr. Stefansson dealt with the circumstances which led to the fitting out of the expedition, how he was persuaded to follow the course which all explorers before him have taken of a well furnished ship equipped with every supply which might be wanted and how the fates decreed him that aid when the Karluk was lost, thus forcing him back to a policy which his experience had convinced him was the best. He went back to his first plan, immediately called for volunteers, finally securing two Norwegian trappers in Alaska at $25 per day, and set out into the Polar Ocean. He had three men to Peary's 21, six dogs to Peary's 132, but a rifle for every man and one extra to Peary's two for his whole party.

Of the circumstances accompanying the loss of the Karluk, associated later with the death of several members of the party before the gallant rescue, Mr. Stefansson confined himself to the statement that Captain Bartlett, having published a book on the subject, he left his audience to read the story there.

The lecturer also only briefly touched on the southern scientific party under Dr. Anderson, and stated that the valuable results accomplished would be rendered available in scientific memoirs by the Ottawa authorities, who were now engaged in their preparation. Instead, Mr. Stefansson preferred to deal with the special work of his own corps, and having its direct supervision, he was able to show how it was fully successful, discovering new areas and giving promise of greater discoveries when the work can be taken up again.

He stated that audiences preferred to hear how the work was done rather than the results achieved, and taking that principle as his guiding course, he described the daily life on the tour, the hunting of seal and polar bear, and the building and use of the snow houses constructed each evening as a better method than a tent, where ventilation was of the best. So light, he said, was it inside that the party could read by the light of a single candle. He stated that he was able to keep his journal with a fountain pen—what a contrast to that of the mind picture created by a thousand previous stories of polar exploration! This part of the story was later illustrated by a series of lantern slides depicting the daily life on tour.

Not Yet Achieved.
Mr. Stefansson dealt at some length with the fallacies regarding the supposed extreme cold on the top of the world, and stated that there were places in Montana colder than the North Pole! The nearer the Pole the longer the winter, but it is not colder and he stated that the Mainland of the Dominion, in the Coppermine district, during the previous expedition of 1910 he had experienced a thermometer over 90 degrees in the shade for several weeks on a stretch. Owing to the effect of the Gulf Stream on the Atlantic seaboard, it was much easier to get by ship far nearer the Pole than on the Pacific side, and the polar regions being thus hospitable, the actual Pole was nearly 400 miles from the centre of the north polar region.

A reference was made to the domestication of the reindeer in Alaska, and the value of the export now built up from that territory to Seattle, and the lecturer pointed out that there was a great opportunity to develop trade with the north.

The lecture was held under the auspices of the Young People's movement of the First Presbyterian Church and Rev. John G. Inkster introduced Mr. Stefansson in a brief speech.

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE MINES

Pulverized Brown Coal.

In view of the attention recently concentrated on the utilization of South Australia's brown coal deposits special interest attaches to the fact that about three months ago a plant for burning pulverized brown coal was installed at the Commonwealth Board Mills, Abbotsford (Victoria). In order to ascertain how this fuel would compare with hand-firing coal in the raw state. The experiment has more than met expectations. There has been a large saving in fuel, the steam-raising capacity of the boiler equipped for using this fuel has been considerably increased, there has been much time saved in bringing steam to the working pressure, and there has been large saving in labor. This will be much larger when all the boilers are fired in this way, for it will mean that one fireman will be able to do the work of eight. Recently, when Mr. T. R. Morris (managing director of the company) was in the United States he had an opportunity of seeing pulverized coal burnt under boilers in several factories in California. The results there were so satisfactory that he decided to install a pulverized coalburning plant at the Abbotsford works. He engaged the services of Mr. Buell, who is an expert on pulverized fuel, and was on the staff of the United States Fuel Administration Committee during the war. On their return arrangements were made to have the plant manufactured in Victoria. No difficulties were found, as the parts were simple, and they could be made by manufacturers without any expense in installing new machinery. They consist essentially of hoppers, in which the powdered coal is placed, a system of pipes to convey it to the boiler, and an airblower to carry it along the system. The coal, which is of the fineness of flour, is ground or pulverized by the Lignite Company Proprietary, Limited, Moreland. So impressed are the factory owners with the economy effected at Abbotsford that already ten firms have decided to follow the example of the Board Mills, Limited. They will make the change from solid to pulverized fuel as soon as the Lignite Company has enlarged its plant.

Moose Group.

The Moose group, Alice Arm, consists of Moose No. 1, Moose No. 2, Moose No. 5 and Moose No. 6; also a fraction. The property is under option to the Moose Group Mining Co., Limited, of Vancouver, originally organized by W. R. Ross, K. C., and associates. The claims have been surveyed by S. D. Arnold, P.L.S.

The season's work consisted in the construction of a trail to the property connecting it with the Trout Creek trail; the construction of winter quarters, and development of the ore bodies by open cuts and tunnels. The camp buildings consist of a cook-house and dining-room 16 ft. by 25 ft.; bunkhouse 16 ft. by 21 ft.; root-house, meat-house, powder-house and blacksmith shop. The camp is supplied by water through a pipeline connecting with a small creek.

Owing to the contour of the country considerable excavation had to be done to provide the foundations for the various buildings. The camp is at an elevation of about 2,000 feet above sea level; well sheltered by timber, and is distant 1,000 to 2,500 ft. from the Trout Creek trail.

There are two veins so far proved on the property, one intersecting the other. The main vein has a width of 20 ft. or twice as much as estimated from the original exposures, and the mineralization is scattered throughout the ore-body. The upper tunnel is in 40 ft. with the face in ore averaging about 25 ozs. silver per ton. By extending this tunnel 80 ft. further it will develop the two veins at the point of intersection, and already there are evidences of enrichment in this direction. On Nov. 11 the lower tunnel was in 21 ft. and the vein is now being prospected with a showing of 5 ft. to 10 ft. of ore on the downward extension of the ore-body. The main vein has a strike approximately east and west, and the smaller vein strikes east and north. The dip is northerly. There is a difference of 210 ft. in the elevation of the two tunnels. The main vein outcrops near the south end of the property. The veins occur in the so-called andesite breccia characteristic of the upper Klusku section of Alice Arm. The mineralization shows grey copper with which the high silver values are associated; a little galena, and a considerable amount of manganese; these features being characteristic of the mineralization throughout the ore-body. The vein outcrops are conspicuous by their black manganese oxide.

Trail Shipments.
Three mines shipped to the Trail smelter the past week for the first time this year, the three being the White Bear at Rossland, the Horse Silver, of the Similkameen, and the Knob Hill, of Republic, Wash. All are old shippers.

The week's receipts at the smelter were 11,145 tons of ore and concentrates, an exceptionally heavy total for seven days. This brings the receipts at Trail for this year to date to 297,771 tons, of which 261,535 tons were ore and 36,236 tons were concentrates. The 260,000 ton mark is thus well passed.

SCREEN FAVORITE IN MONTE CARLO FILM

Katherine MacDonald's Greatest Triumph on Royal Screen This Week

With a story, star and production that had fair to set the pace for screen attractions for months to come, "Passions Playground," adapted from the famous story of Monte Carlo, "The Guests of Hercules," by C. N. and A. M. Williamson, will be shown at the Royal Victoria Theatre, commencing to-night.

The infinite opportunities for picturization of the famous gambling story induced Katherine MacDonald, "the American beauty," to select it as the starring vehicle for her latest release under her contract with First National Exhibitors' Circuit. Despite her remarkable past successes, Miss Shared By Society Bleeders.

Reared in a convent, the blood of a gambler in her veins, Miss MacDonald takes the part of Mary Grant who leaves the convent upon receipt of her inheritance to make way to Monte Carlo. Here, Mary becomes involved in the schemes of a set of society bleeders whose efforts to ensure her prove to be replete with thrills.

Perhaps no other fictionalized work dealing with the attempts of titled personages and wealthy men and women from all parts of the world to stake their fortunes and titles upon the chance-devises at Monte Carlo has met with the popularity of "The Guests of Hercules."

LOVE THEME IN BIG ARBUCKLE PICTURE

Strong Story in "The Round Up" Presented to Dominion Screen Patrons

The sacrifice of love and honor on the altar of love is the masterful theme developed in George Melford's magnificent production of the big stage success, "The Round Up," starring Roscoe Arbuckle, which will be shown at the Dominion Theatre to-day.

Dick Lane goes out prospecting, leaving the girl he loves in the care of Jack Payson, his best friend. Dick strikes it rich, but on his way back is robbed and tortured by a band of Indians. He is found and taken by his friends to a hospital. A report comes home that he is dead. Jack woos and wins the girl and the wedding date is set. A short time after, Jack receives a letter from Dick, saying he is alive, and enclosing another letter for the girl. It is then that Jack sacrifices honor for love, tears up the letters and withholds from the girl the news that her former lover is still alive. The picture is also filled with excellent comedy—thanks to Roscoe Arbuckle, who, by arrangement with Joseph M. Schenk stars in the role of Slim Hoover, the fat sheriff, the role that was essayed in the stage production by Maclay Arbuckle. George Melford directed and the cast is far above the average. Mabel Julianne Scott plays opposite the star.

STORY OF BORDERLAND FEUDS AND SCHEMES

Frank Mayo Stars in "The Red Lane" at the Columbia

Norman Aldrich, a young American customs officer on duty in the North Maine woods near the Canadian border, had the task and responsibility of a dozen men in his work to clear out the smugglers from that section of the border and to protect the land owners from the schemes of a large lumber syndicate.

"The Red Lane," which comes to the Columbia Theatre this week, is a screen drama in which is thrillingly told the story of this American officer, his battle with the smuggling woodsmen, his war against the schemes of the lumber syndicate, and the romance which supplies the silver lining for his dark cloud of strife and unrest.

Although the lawless forces are massed against him, Aldrich has the faith of a few friends and a girl, the latter supplying him with the ambition and courage to continue the fight against the overwhelming odds. Marie Beaulieu, who believes in Aldrich and his cause, is the daughter of one of the smugglers. When she learns of her father's connections she leaves her home, and the blame for her removal is placed on Aldrich.

A keen political situation in which Aldrich is opposing the candidate of the lumber syndicate and smugglers is climaxed when he is accused of the murder of his sweetheart's father.

Holman Day, the author of "The Red Lane," gives this latest Universal feature an exciting twist that clears up a seemingly hopeless situation for Aldrich.

Frank Mayo is starred in "The Red Lane" under the direction of Lynn Reynolds. A very admirable supporting cast includes Lillian Rich, James Mason, Paul Weigel, Karl Formes, Jean Hersholt and many others.

Orphanage Children Entertained.
On Saturday afternoon the children from the Protestant Orphanage attended the performance of "Pollyanna" at the Princess Theatre, as the guests of Miss Page. Transportation for the kiddies was arranged by the employees of the British America Paint Co., and on arrival at the theatre each child received a bag of candy which was given by Stevenson Confectionery, the Misses Castle and Miss D. Ross.

MONTE CARLO'S ROOMS

MARY stood on the threshold of an enormous room, magnificently proportioned, hung with lustrous chandeliers, and divided by an archway in two sections. The farther part was much larger than that which she had entered, and more sumptuous in decoration; but the whole was flooded with a peculiar radiance which turned everything to gold. It was far mellowed than the light of the atrium, or the splendid rooms of the hotel. It had actual color like honey, or the pinky-golden skin of apricots. It was bright, yet the impression it made on the mind was of softness rather than brilliance; and the shimmering atmosphere of the room, instead of being clear, seemed charged with infinitesimal particles of floating gold, like motes in rays of sunshine. The tables, under darkly shaded, low hanging lamps, gave the effect of sending a yellow smoke, like incense, up to the height of the great dazzling chandeliers. It was almost as if the hands of players in fingered-old pieces-day after day, year after year, for generations, had rubbed off minute flakes which hung like a golden haze in the air. The air was not offensively dead, but it was languorously asleep. Many different perfumes haunted and weighed it down; but there was some underlying, distinctive odor which excited the nerves mysteriously, and sent the blood racing through the veins.

"It is the smell of money," Mary said to herself.

NATURAL SCENERY FORMS BACKGROUND

Special Attention Given to Filming of "Trumpet Island" at Variety

Scenes of rare natural beauty, compounded of islands and woods and rugged cliffs, add largely to the charm and interest of "Trumpet Island," the Vitaphone special screen production which will be seen at the Variety Theatre all this week.

Tom Terriss, the director of the production, spent a large amount of time, in which he went several times from coast to coast in order to obtain just the location suitable for the filming of this unusual story of romance and adventure. Most of the production was made in Southern California, while a number of the scenes were "shot" in the East. Catalina Island, twenty miles off the California coast, was determined upon as the ideal place for staging the "Trumpet Island" scenes. It answered every requirement.

Although the picture has no war flavor or angle, airplanes play an important part in it, and in order to get the machines to Catalina Island, Terriss determined to fly them and use them to transport the company to the location. Marguerite De La Motte, Wallace MacDonald and several of their supporting players made the trip by air line.

"Trumpet Island" is from the story by Gouverneur Morris. It was edited for the screen by Mr. and Mrs. George Randolph Chester. Mr. Chester, who is editor in chief of Vitaphone, wrote the famous "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford" stories.

The super-feature attraction at the Variety will be, the great animal picture, "The Lost City."

ACTRESS DISCOVERS WORTH OF HUSBAND

But Not Until Too Late; Told in Romano Film This Week

J. Stuart Blackton presents Sylvia Breamer and Robert Gordon in a gripping and private life story of the stage and private life of a famous actress. My Husband's Other Wife is the title of the story. It is showing to-day at the Romano Theatre. Sylvia Breamer portrays the actress who allowed her fame to submerge her husband's individuality. Warren Chandler enacts the husband—a physician who would rather be slaving in some hospital or in the slums, than catering to society that patronized him only because he was the husband of a star.

Robert Gordon has the difficult role of the playright who loves the actress and, whose plays have raised her to the pinnacle of success. May Mayo plays the part of the minister's daughter whom the doctor meets and marries after the actress divorces him.

After the divorce and her husband's happy marriage to another the actress awakens to a realization of her husband's worth, thereby wearing the story into a tangle that promises to hold audiences in a tight grip until the very end.

ROCKS THAT BEND.

There are rocks that will actually bend if placed in certain positions. Some sandstones will bend like pieces of india rubber. If a moderately thin piece of sandstone is supported only at its ends, it will sag in the middle; while if a piece is supported in the middle, the two ends will drop.

Flexible rock is found in India, and also in America, more especially in Brazil. It contains a proportion of mica, which is largely used for making lamp chimneys on account of its flexibility. The presence of mica does not, however, account for the bending quality of the rock which is due to the fact that the particles of quartz of which it is composed are interlocked together like hinges, with spaces in between the particles, in such a manner that though the rock will give to a certain extent it will not break. BRITISH CARTOONIST TO BE SEEN HERE

"Bairnsfather Case" Will Be Autobiography of Climb to Fame

Few young men have had a more adventurous career than Captain Bruce Bairnsfather, the famous British Cartoonist, who is not only one of the world's really great humorists but is also renowned as an author and playwright. Bairnsfather's splendid comedy "The Better 'Ole" was one of the biggest theatrical successes of recent times.

So great has been the degree of public interest in Bairnsfather's career that he has received overwhelming requests to write the story of his own life, and to illustrate it with some of his inimitable sketches. As the result of these suggestions, he has written a highly humorous account of his climb to fame, entitled "The Bairnsfather Case," which will shortly be issued by Putnam's, the New York publishers.

In this remarkable book Bairnsfather tells how he started as an artist, the enormous obstacles that he overcame before he achieved success, and what personal elements in himself and in his work seem to have contributed most toward making him known throughout the world. The story begins with his youthful exploits as an amateur artist in India, where his father was a distinguished army officer. Later on Bairnsfather gives a fascinating account of how he made his hit as a cartoonist during the tragic days of the war, while he was seeing active service in the trenches of Flanders.

It is of interest to add that Bairnsfather, who is still unmarried, spends most of his time at his English country house, a quaint Elizabethan mansion in the village of Bishopton near Stratford-on-Avon. In this quiet retreat he has his studio and does most of his cartooning work, besides editing a weekly humorous paper of large circulation and occasionally writing a humorous book. The famous artist-cartoonist is revisiting the United States and Canada, making a brief tour, in the course of which he will deliver a sparkling lecture entitled "Old Bill, Me and the Income Tax." To illustrate his remarks he will draw humorous sketches on the stage, while some of his best known cartoons will be thrown on a screen by stereopticon.

This lecture, which has made a big hit in England, will, it is predicted, prove equally popular in this country. Bairnsfather's humor, in fact, is international and appeals to every race. In England, at the present time, people forget Bolshevism, high-cost of living, profiteering and coal strikes as they chuckle over Bairnsfather's latest funny pictures. The man who did so much toward helping England to win battles during the war is now helping England to overcome the red peril, and also to settle peacefully many other perils that threaten to end in strife, by arousing good will and revealing the humorous side. He will be seen at the Royal Victoria on November 25.

W. K. Ziegfeld, whose recent invasion of the motion picture field was hailed with much excitement in dramatic circles, has again backed up his predilection for players of the spoken drama by signing Norman Trevor, the eminent actor, for a series of eight productions under the banner of "Ziegfeld Films."

PASSIONS PLAYGROUND

TO PRESENT SHORTLY YEOMEN OF THE GUARD

Best Score of Sullivan's Operas Will Be Heard
Again Here

On Monday and Tuesday, November 22 and 23 and again on Monday and Tuesday, November 29 and 30 Gilbert & Sullivan's most famous opera "The Yeomen of the Guard" will be presented by the Victoria Dramatic and Operatic Society in aid of the funds of the Navy League.

It is many years since this delightful romantic light opera was heard in Victoria, and the production will undoubtedly be welcomed by all who love good music and brilliant dialogue. Although classed as a light opera "The Yeomen of the Guard" is quite different from all the other productions of that clever combination of talent, Sir William S. Gilbert and Sir Arthur Sullivan. There is a tragic note running through it, which however is clearly balanced by delicate humor. The situations throughout compel the interest of the audience and in places, particularly in the finales of both acts this interest becomes intense.

The music throughout is typical of Sullivan at his best—for he himself always maintained that the "Yeomen" was the best score he ever wrote—and indeed, although it is presumptuous to compare the works of such a genius, in his concerted numbers for the "Yeomen" Sullivan has excelled himself.

The scene of the play is laid in the historic Tower of London during the reign of Henry VIII, a period redolent of romance. For this production great care has been exercised to ensure accuracy of detail in costumes and scenery. A particularly strong cast has been selected consisting of Miss Eva Hart, Mrs. Wendell Shaw, Miss L. Cody, Mrs. Allwood, Messrs. H. J. Davis, R. B. McKennie, James Hunter, Jack Petch, Donald Castle, whilst a very noteworthy feature will be the splendid chorus of picked voices which even in the earlier stages of rehearsal gave promise of being one of the finest aggregations ever assembled for a local production.

The production is under the patronage of His Honor the Lieutenant Governor, who has announced his intention of being present on the opening night.

"THE LAW DIVINE" WILL APPEAR HERE

H. V. Esmond and Eva Moore
Will Play Fine English
Comedy

The arrival in Canada of the distinguished English comedian, H. V. Esmond, and his brilliant wife, Miss Eva Moore, signals an event of the greatest interest to all theatre-goers who appreciate the best in English comedy. Mr. Esmond and Miss Moore will within a few days open an all-Canadian tour, which will bring to the public of this Dominion one of the most delightful theatrical entertainments the English-speaking stage has known for a long time. In "The Law Divine" Mr. Esmond has written a comedy that still stands out as one of the few notable stage successes of the War period, but it is in one sense a war play. It deals with a problem that arose out of the war, but the combat and the trenches and the human sacrifice of the conflict do not enter into this play.

It is instead a comedy in the highest sense of the term, dealing with the domestic side of war problems. A husband who has returned from the front to do duty at the War Office finds his wife all wrapped up in various kinds of war work that she has forgotten all about her home duties. The two drift further and further apart, until they reach the breaking-point. Their only son is just old enough to enlist, and their young daughter is living away from home.

At the very moment when tragedy seems unavoidable, the wife realizes that she cannot hope to regain her husband's affection unless she, on her side, takes up her life where she dropped it for the fascination of her war work and the various phases of war work and the various phases of war work and the various phases of war work.

of their reconciliation and the results thereof constitute the basis upon which Mr. Esmond has built up a comedy which, in its wit, its genial philosophy, its diverting situations and its kindly, appealing home-truths will challenge comparison with the best English comedy successes of the past two decades. M. Esmond and Miss Moore will be seen in "The Law Divine" at the Royal Victoria shortly.

DRAWN CAPACITY

"Maid of the Mountains"
Wins Laurels in Every City

The All-British production of "The Maid of the Mountains," which will be seen at the Royal Victoria theatre shortly continues to draw capacity audiences, and up to date it has broken all records, including even that scored by the famous "Chu Chin Chow." In Toronto there was an unprecedented demand for seats long before the opening night. The receipts on Thanksgiving Day were phenomenal.

The Toronto critics were unanimous in their verdict that "The Maid of the Mountains" is an entertainment which has not been equaled in Canada for brightness, originality, attractive melodies, and clever acting. Moreover, they were enthusiastic about the scenery, and their opinion is endorsed by the public to such an extent that hundreds of requests have been received urging that the production be retained in the Queen's City for another week. This, however, it has been found impossible to do, and the tour will in consequence be carried out according to the existing schedule, which means that the date originally set for the appearance of the company here will be adhered to, other conditions permitting.

Comparisons have been made everywhere between "The Maid of the Mountains" and the characteristic musical comedy to which Canada has become accustomed of late. The production possesses qualities of melody, of picturesqueness, of originality and of high class quality that place it in a class by itself.

The singing of Miss Viva Daron has proved a sensation everywhere, and the general ensemble of the entire company, both in the chorus work and the concerted numbers, as well as in the scenes which call for pure comedy, both individual and supported, has come as a surprise even to those who had been prepared for something far above the ordinary. "The Maid of the Mountains," in fact, is continuing its triumphal tour and gaining laurels in every town.

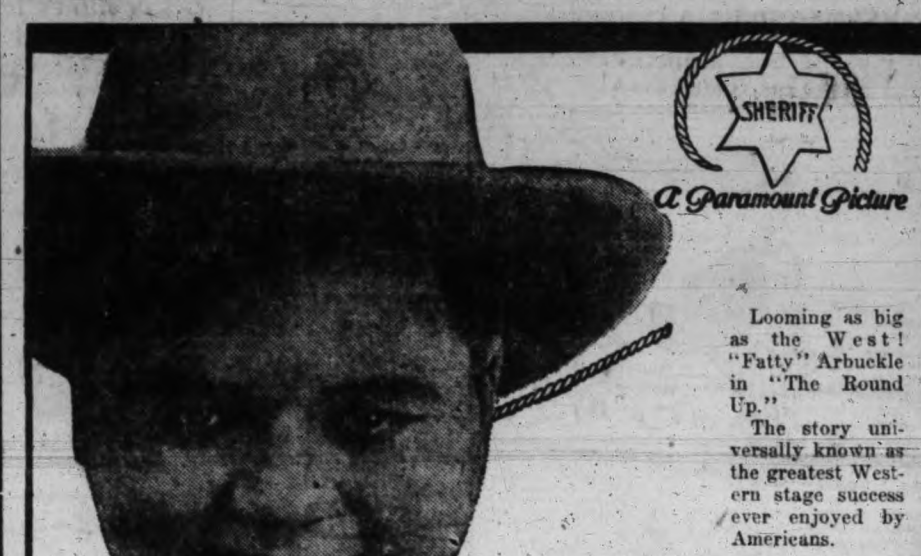

Nearly Every Girl Can Make Herself Pretty and Attractive

SOME WHOLESOME TRUTHS
EVERY GIRL SHOULD THINK ABOUT

Probably you know just such a girl.

Perhaps she is sixteen—good to look at, and pretty—quite interesting because she reflects the graces and charm that give promise of happiness to herself and others. But she is not strong. The color in her cheeks, once so rosy, has faded away—her eyes are listless—the buoyancy of spirit and vigor she once possessed are sadly lacking. Parents, friends, this girl needs Ferronone—needs it that her blood may be renewed—needs it to restore the nerve force that growth, study and the development of her fresh youth have exhausted. This girl will become a queen with Ferronone—which will restore her color—bring back her old-time energy—give brightness to her eyes and vivacity to her spirits. In Ferronone every girl finds strength—then she can do things. In Ferronone there is endurance—that drives away morning tiredness and languor. For the girl or woman that wants to be happy, healthy, winning—who values her cheeks, laughing eyes and abundant good spirits, nothing can compare with Ferronone. 50c. per box, or six for $2.50. FILM MEN BARRED FROM OLD CHURCHYARD

Drinking Scene Results in Rector Banning All Actors

London, Nov. 15.—The sign, "No film producers allowed," greets those who considered the churchyard of St. George's, East, an ideal "location" for its picturesqueness and nearness to London. It has appeared as background in many films, but the rector, the Rev. J. K. Floyer, thinks "that it has been visited once too often."

"It must stop," he told a Daily News representative, "and, as you see, I have already posted at the gate a notice to that effect."

"I did not mind producers coming once, but they have been making a habit of it, and my parishioners were beginning to wonder whether the churchyard had been leased in part as a studio."

"I gave permission once, being assured that nothing would be done in any way out of keeping with the surroundings, and have no objection to the cinema, but the privilege was abused. I had always suspected that film people, when in action, had few senses beyond the commercial, but I was surprised to learn, upon returning from a holiday recently, that one company had actually enacted a drinking scene in the churchyard. And it had spent nine hours there, which might have been most offensive to mourners coming to attend to the graves—or even to assist in a funeral service. For St. George's is still used for burials."

Mr. Floyer's attention was then drawn to what appeared to be an unusual thing, a second notice on the gate, charging six-pence for an inspection of the church itself. "That charge has been made for thirty years now," he hastened to explain, "in fact, it used to be double. Except very occasionally, you see, divine service is not held there. There has, I believe, been no service since 1837."

"It is, to all intents and purposes, a museum, containing, as it does, the famous Claremont pew, where King Leopold, Queen Victoria and Princess Charlotte worshipped, and the equally famous Leopold and Charlotte triptych, and many other relics, under its Tudor roof."

SOOKE CELEBRATED ARMISTICE DAY

Local Memorial Decorated;
Dance in Evening; New Settlers Arrive

The plain, yet impressive monument, erected by the people of Sooke to the memory of those gallant men who gave their all for the great cause was on Thursday last draped with the Union Jack of the Sooke Women's Institute and at its base was deposited a shell case from Vimy Ridge filled by local flowers and a bunch of Michaelmas daisies which had blossomed on an actual root sent by one of the Sooke men, in a tobacco tin from just outside of Douai during the last few weeks of the awful struggle. Whilst Armistice Day was being celebrated throughout the British Empire, Sooke's fallen heroes were not forgotten, at least by many in this the oldest settlement on Vancouver Island and attached to the Empire's flag was a piece of paper bearing the following appropriate lines which were written by the commanding officer of an Old Country regiment, the 12th Mants, just after the Battle of Zonnebake:

"The battle's hushed and night draws gently down;
The dead lie quietly there as if asleep.
Boy faces all of them, and ne'er a frown
Disturbs their slumbers now; their lips still keep
The smile they wore the while they yielded up
Their whispering souls to Christ,
Who grants to such
The earnest of His Word; they drank the cup
Of bitterness, and their reward is much.
And as they lie their dear white faces show,
That they at least are sure that all is well.
They have not died in vain for others know
Their sacrifice is like a clarion bell
To all of those whom honor calls, and see—
The stretchers take away the men we loved,
And then—Dear lads, God grant we meet above."

Dance.
The second anniversary of the signing of the Armistice at the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month of 1918, was celebrated at the Sooke Hall in the evening by a dance arranged by the leading men in connection with Messrs. Todd's Fish Traps which was enjoyed by the many who were present.

In response to a petition sent to the director of war trophies, Ottawa, from the returned men and the residents generally throughout the Sooke District, two large captured German machine guns have been donated by the Dominion Government to Sooke and are now on their way from Ottawa.

Boys' Naval Brigade.
The Sooke Sub-Division of the Boys' Naval Brigade held the usual parade on Saturday at 2.30 o'clock. The lads fell in opposite to the Sooke monument and their attention was called to the bronze tablet which bore the honored names of those men from Sooke who had given their all in the cause of justice, honor and freedom. A new recruit No. 213, W. Sullivan of Otter Point Road was then enlisted. The lads were afterwards marched to Murray's landing on Sooke Harbor where they were given instructions in rowing and knot-tying.

Next Thursday, Mr. Ravenhill, the Chairman of the Navy League in Victoria, expects to visit the Sooke and Otter Point Schools where he will distribute badges of membership with the league to boys and girls in these schools who have recently joined the movement. He also intends to visit the Jordan River School.

Prairie People Interested.
The Sooke district of Vancouver Island is commanding considerable interest among prairie people of late who have been looking for homesteads and fruit farms on the island and property is changing hands. One prairie farmer who has been a month investigating the districts on the southern portion of the island affirms that he has "not found better soil anywhere than he has seen in Sooke, neither has he seen a more beautiful place."

Notes
The Oak Bay Municipal Council have made a very handsome donation to the Scout Headquarters to help Scouting. One of Victoria's leading merchants has undertaken the publication of a fine pamphlet on Scout and Cub work, to be circulated in this District, to encourage Scouting and also to help in an appeal for support. An address was given to the pupils of South Park School during the week on Scouting by the Organizing Secretary assisted by Mr. Dixon. At the Executive Committee meeting held last Wednesday it was decided not to appoint a Chairman or Vice-Chairman until the next regular meeting of the Committee. A very hearty vote of thanks was unanimously passed to the Organizing Secretary for his work during the past nine months.

The Ladies' Committee hope to organize a campaign for funds to help the Local Association very shortly. The Scout Officers of the Association will hold a supper instead of their usual monthly meeting next Wednesday. Thirty Officers are expected to be present upon this occasion.
